

Contents

C. H. van Rhee
Introduction	7
 I. Middle Ages
M. Ascheri
Between Statutory Law and Learned Law: Delay in the Early History of the Medieval Italian Communes (and Beyond)	37
P. Brand
‘To None Will We Sell, to None Will We Deny or Delay Right or Justice’: Expedition and Delay in Civil Proceedings in the English Medieval Royal Courts	57
R. H. Helmholz
Due and Undue Delay in the English Ecclesiastical Courts (ca. 1300 – 1600)	73
K. W. Nörr
Verzögert oder beschleunigt: das Beispiel des römisch-kanonischen Prozessrechts ...	93
 II. Early Modern Period
A. M. J. A. Berkvens
The Reform of Civil Procedure in the Rhine-Prussian Provinces: The Example of Prussian Gueldres 1713 – 1786	105
J. Finlay
The History of Delay in Civil Procedure at the Scottish Court of Session (1600 – 1830)	121
A. M. Godfrey
Procedural Delay, Appeal and Advocation in the Court of Session in Sixteenth-Century Scotland	153
 III. 19th and 20th Centuries
J. Blackie
Delay and Its Control in Mid to Late Nineteenth Century Scottish Civil Procedure ...	179
W. H. Bryson
The Code of Virginia of 1849	199
S. Fockedey
Reducing Undue Delay in Nineteenth Century Belgium: a Sisyphean Task	215

T. P. Gallanis
Victorian Reform of Civil Litigation in the Superior Courts of Common Law	233
P. Oberhammer / T. Domej
Delay in Austrian Civil Procedure and the Legislator's Response	255
D. Tamm / A. Højer Schjøler
The Way to the 1916 Reform of Danish Procedural Law	279
S. Waddams
Clergy Discipline in the Church of England, 1830–1892	297
A. Wijffels
Undue Delay and the French Code of Civil Procedure (1806)	319
List of Contributors	355