

Contents

List of Acronyms	9
1. Introduction	11
2. Historical Overview (1954 – 2009).....	15
3. Research Strategy	21
4. Governance of the Ilisu Project.....	23
Governance as Scientific Perspective.....	23
Governance in the Age of Globalization.....3.....	24
Governance of the Ilisu Project.....	26
5. Stakeholders of the Ilisu Project.....	33
5.1 The Project Affected Persons.....	34
Political Conflict in Southeastern Anatolia.....	35
The Economic Situation in the Project Region	39
PAPs' Perception of the Ilisu Project	42
Ilisu Village and the Dam Construction Site	44
Hasankeyf – Historical Overview	46
Income, Public Life and Infrastructure of Hasankeyf.....	50
A Bridge for New Hasankeyf?.....	52
Perceptions of the Inhabitants of Hasankeyf	53
Participation of the Project Affected Persons	58
5.2 The Project Owner	63
The Governance of the Southeastern Anatolia Project (Güney Dogu Anadolu Projesi – GAP)	63
State Hydraulic Works (Devlet Su Isleri - DSI)	64
The Project Implementation Unit (PIU)	65

5.3	The Ilisu Consortium.....	66
	The Enmeshment between the Ilisu Consortium, the Project Owner and the Consultant Company ENCON.....	69
5.4	The Export Credit Agencies	71
	Purpose of the Export Credit Agencies	72
	Incentives for the Official Support of Exports.....	73
	Effects of ECAs' Global Competition	76
	Governance of the Official Support for Export Credits on the Austrian National Level	78
	The Role of Parliament in Decision Making on Official Support for Export Credits for the Ilisu Project in Austria	81
5.5	The Transnational Advocacy Network against the Ilisu Dam Project.....	85
	General Characteristics of Networks.....	86
	The Role of Transnational Advocacy Networks in Governance	86
	The Transnational Campaign against the Ilisu Dam.....	89
	Tactics used in the Stop-Ilisu Campaign.....	91
	Reasons for the Success of the Stop-Ilisu Dam Campaign	97
6.	International Institutions affecting the Governance of the Ilisu Project.....	101
	Sovereign Statehood: International Institution Par Excellence	101
	International Laws to Protect Human Rights.....	102
	Regulations for the Utilization of International Water Courses	103
	The Safeguard Policies of the World Bank	107
	The OECD Common Approaches.....	110

Ad Hoc Regulation: The Agreed Minutes of the Final Assessment Meeting.....	112
7. The Ilisu Project Benchmarked Against the World Bank's Safeguard Policies for Resettlement OP / BP 4.12	115
The Aim of the WB Policies for Involuntary Resettlement	115
ECAs' Appraisal of the Project Benchmarked against OP / BP 4.12	117
The Gap between Turkish Expropriation Laws and the Standards of the World Bank	123
Implementation Phase of the Ilisu Project: 2007 to 2009	124
Expropriation of Lands for "New Hasankeyf"	128
Conclusions about Compliance with World Bank Standards.....	134
8. Legitimacy of the Ilisu Project.....	137
Some Reflections on Legitimacy and Representative Democracy	137
Rational Discourse as a Source of Legitimacy.....	138
The Rationale for the Ilisu Project	139
Stakeholders' unequal access to the discourse on the Ilisu Project	145
Accountability in the Governance of the Ilisu Project.....	146
Consequences of the Legitimation Deficit of the Ilisu Project	148
9. Conclusions.....	151

10. Practical Suggestions to Enhance Participation of the Project Affected People in the Governance of the Southeastern Anatolia Project GAP.....	153
11. Recent Development and Future Outlook.....	157
References.....	159
Disclaimer from the Hyperlinks.....	165
Abstract	167
Acknowledgments	169
ANNEX I	171
Map of Hasankeyf showing the Reservoir Area and the Relocation Site for “New Hasankeyf”	171
ANNEX II.....	173
Photographs from the project area (Ilisu, Hasankeyf, Kesmeköprü).....	173