

Contents

Foreword	7
Robert Harmsen / Joachim Schild
Introduction: National European Discourses and the 2009 European Parliament Elections	9
 I. European discourses in the founding member states
Amandine Crespy
Europe and Euroscepticism: 'Non-Issues' in Belgian Politics	17
Siegfried Schieder
Germany: Problematizing Europe, or Evidence of an Emergent Euroscepticism?	33
Olivier Rozenberg
Playing Softly with Euroscepticism: The 2009 European Elections in France	51
Marco Brunazzo / Vincent Della Sala
From Salvation to Pragmatic Indifference?: Europe in Italian Political Discourse	69
Hans Vollaard
Dutch Discourses of a Small Nation in an Inefficient Europe: Cosmopolitanism, Pragmatism, and Nationalism	85
 II. European discourses in Northern and Southern accession states
Rebecca Adler-Nissen
From Left to Right: The Transformation of Eurosceptic Discourses in Denmark	107
Oliver Daddow
The UK, 'Europe' and the 2009 European Parliament Elections	125
José M. Magone
European Debates and Varieties of Euroenthusiasm: The Spanish Case	145
Tapio Raunio
Debating Europe in Finland: Euroscepticism or Legitimate Concerns about National Influence?	165
	5

III. European discourses in Central and Eastern Europe

Laure Neumayer

Debating Europe in the Czech Republic – the ‘Reluctant Europeans’? 183

Daunis Auers

The 2009 European Parliament Election Campaign in Latvia:
Europeanizing Domestic Ethnic Discourse 201

Karen Henderson

Slovakia: Beyond the Passive Consensus on the EU 217

Ramona Coman / Cristina Stănculescu

Romania: Framing European Integration in the 2009 European Parliament
Election Campaign 233

IV. Conclusion

Robert Harmsen / Joachim Schild

Diverging Experiences – Distinctive Clusters? 251

List of Abbreviations 275

Contributors 279