

Contents

Introduction: Inventing the “Modern American Family”: Family Values and Social Change in 20 th Century United States Isabel Heinemann	7
Section I: Building the Nation: The American Family
Nationalist Middle-Class Women, Memory, and Conservative Family Values, 1890–1945 Simon Wendt	31
“Americanization through Homemaking”: Mexican American Mothers as a Major Factor in Americanization Programs Claudia Roesch	59
Mothering the Nation, Unmothering the Self: New Women and Maternal Narratives in the Progressive Era Barbara Antoniazzi	82
Section II: Social Experts and the American Family
“Healthy” Men make Good Fathers: Masculine Health and the Family in 20 th Century America Tracy Penny Light	105
Social Experts and Modern Women’s Reproduction: From “Working Women’s Neurosis” to the Abortion Debate, 1950–1980 Isabel Heinemann	124

Section III: Failing Parents and Problematic Youth

“The Enemy Within”: African American Motherhood and the “Crack Baby Crisis” Anne Overbeck	155
Looking for Fathers in the Postwar U.S. Foster Care System Catherine E. Rymph	177
“But recall the kind of parents we have to deal with”: Juvenile Delinquency, Interdependent Masculinity and the Government of Families in the Postwar U.S. Nina Mackert	196

Section IV: Fatherhood / Motherhood and the Media

“You be a man if you can, Stan”: Family Life and Fatherhood in Charles Burnett’s Killer of Sheep (1977) Jürgen Martschukat	223
Is Mom to Blame? Anti-Communist Law Enforcement and the Representation of Motherhood in Early Cold War U.S. Film Olaf Stieglitz	244
Family Man: The Popular Reception of Home Improvement , 1991–1992, and the Debate about Fatherhood Andre Dechert	265
Bibliography	289
Contributors	326
Index	330