

Contents

1	Institutional Change in the Regulation of Financial Markets: Questions and Answers Renate Mayntz	7
2	The Two-Tiered Politics of Financial Reform in the United States John T. Woolley and J. Nicholas Ziegler	29
3	Post-Crisis Financial Regulation in Britain Sukhdev Johal, Michael Moran and Karel Williams	67
4	International Radicalism, Domestic Conformism: France's Ambiguous Stance on Financial Reforms Nicolas Jabko	97
5	Institutional Change in German Financial Regulation Stefan Handke and Hubert Zimmermann	119
6	Increasing Vulnerability: Financial Market Regulation in Switzerland Simon Steinlin and Christine Trampusch	143
7	The Regulatory Response of the European Union to the Global Financial Crisis Lucia Quaglia	171
8	The Defense of Economic Interests in the European Union: The Case of Hedge Fund Regulation Cornelia Woll	197
9	What's the Problem? Competing Diagnoses and Shifting Coalitions in the Reform of International Accounting Standards Paul Lagneau-Ymonet and Sigrid Quack	213

10	New Capital Rules? Reforming Basel Banking Standards after the Financial Crisis Roman Goldbach and Dieter Kerwer	247
11	Institutional Change at the Top: From the Financial Stability Forum to the Financial Stability Board Shawn Donnelly	263
12	The International Financial Architecture: Plus ça change ...? Geoffrey R. D. Underhill and Jasper Blom	279
	Contributors	295
	Abbreviations	297