

Contents

Why Kurt Tucholsky Today? Foreword by Anne Nelson	9
Kurt Tucholsky: A Berlin Life. Introduction by Ian King	13

Part I, The Beginnings: Tucholsky and His Berlin

Berlin! Berlin!	23
Three Biographies	27
To the Berlin Woman	31
The City's Face	32
Interview with Myself	38

Part II, Before the Great War: The Gilded Age

Fairy Tale	43
Harun al-Rashid	44
Berlin Cabaret	45
Summertime in Berlin	49
The Policed	51
Berlin Is Having Fun!	52
Carnival in Berlin	53
At the Movies	54
The Monitors	56

Part III, After the Great War: The Weimar Republic

Berlin's Gambling Dens	57
We Really Should Have. . .	61
Flouting Love	65
White Spots	66
Berlin Business	68
In the Provinces	71
150 Kaiserallee	75
Lion on the Loose!	79
Prussian Heaven	83
The Homeless	86
A Children's Hell in Berlin	88
Three Generations	91

Berlin Love	94
Mr. Wendriner Makes a Phone Call	96
The Family	98
Mornings at Eight	101
To Do! To Do!	103
Evenings after Six	104
Ape Cage	107
Berlin's Best	110
The Lamplighters	115
The Central Office	119
Berliner on Vacation	121
Berlin Traffic	125
Mr. Wendriner Goes to the Theater	128
Confessio	132
"Just a Minute!"	134
The Slogan	139

Part IV Impending Doom: Leaving Berlin

Berlin! Berlin!	143
Where Do the Holes in Cheese Come From?	148
Weisse with a Shot	154
The Times Are Screaming for Satire	157
In the Hotel Lobby	167
Lottie Confesses 1 Lover	171
In Defense of Berlin	175
Brief Outline of the National Economy	178
Mr. Wendriner Lives in a Dictatorship	181
Röhm	187
Afterward	189
 Berlinica Presents	 192