

1	Introduction	6
2	Conceptualising benefit sharing on dams on international rivers	9
2.1	The concept of benefit sharing on international rivers	10
2.2	Benefits and external effects associated with dams	11
2.3	Hydro-political constellation and incentives for states to negotiate on sharing the benefits of dams	13
2.4	Negotiating benefit-sharing arrangements	16
3	Case studies	19
3.1	Dams on the Senegal River: overcoming financial constraints to unilateral action	20
3.2	Dams on the Columbia River: altered dam design increases aggregated net benefits	22
3.3	Lesotho Highlands Water Project on Senqu-Orange River: locating the project upstream increases aggregated net benefits	24
3.4	Aswan High Dam on the Nile River: compensating negative externalities directed upstream	26
3.5	Kariba Dam on the Zambezi River: symmetrical benefits of a dam on a border river	27
4	Political and institutional factors that influence the establishment of benefit sharing agreements	28
5	Development cooperation: promoting benefit sharing	31
6	References	33