
Contents

	Table of Cases	vii
	Foreword	ix
1	Introduction	1
2	The rise of a model: The European Court of Justice as an engine of integration	8
	Neofunctionalism	9
	Intergovernmentalism	33
3	The saga of European legal integration: The court and its case law	43
	Forging the European judicial archetype	43
	Integration and international public law	46
	The transformation of the preliminary ruling procedure: the case law	47
4	The politics of judicial design: professionals and legal experts	58
	Brief notes on the transplant approach: aims and limitations	59
	Three Andean puzzles around the establishment of the Andean Court of Justice	61
	Epistemic communities and advocacy coalitions: an overview	63
	The Andean-European network	66
	Conditions for the action of networks: using windows of opportunity	72
	Assessing the efficacy of legal networks: a counterfactual inference	76
	Expanding the Andean network: bringing the judges in	79
5	The Andean Court of Justice: charting the course for its case law	84
	The origins of the Andean Group	84
	The Andean institutional setting: an overview	88
	The Andean Court of Justice	90
	Common policy on intellectual property: the case of the patents	101
	Establishing a common market by expansive interpretation	108

6	What legal engineers do not get: rights politics and the pitfalls of concept stretching	113
	Assessing empirical variations between the courts	114
	Neofunctionalism and the Andean engine of integration	117
	Intergovernmentalism and the kite model	118
	Towards an alternative explanation	119
	Two competing regulatory models: decentralised vs. centralist	123
	Explaining expansive jurisprudence in regional integration: rights politics	130
	South American scholarship and the community of fate	131
	Concept stretching and theory building	134
7	Epilogue and excursus: the Andean way towards constitutionalisation	137
	The foundational period (1969–72)	138
	The period of institutional expansion and stagnation (1972–96)	139
	Towards constitutionalisation (1996 onwards): an excursus	140
	Bibliography	145
	Index	163