

Content

Foreword	5
German and Polish Public Law: A Good Tradition in Comparative Law Oesten Baller	9
European Law and German Administrative Tradition Hartmut Aden	19
The Europe 2020 Strategy and the European Structural Funds Eva Lieber	31
Problems of Efficiency in Reforming Administration of Justice in Poland Janusz Sługocki	41
Administrative Complaint Meets Rescissory Action: The Polish Example Janusz Orłowski	49
Administrative Complaint versus Rescissory Action – The German Example Sabrina Schönrock	63
Multi-Level Administration and Local Self-Government in Poland Bronisław Sitek, Aleksander W. Bauknecht	71
Structural Reform of the Counties in Mecklenburg-West Pomerania Jens Tessmann	83
Legal Formalization of Public Administration Sebastian Bentkowski	91
Who Holds the Chalk? Mariola Lemonnier	101
Public Authority or Corporation – Searching for the Best Organisational Form of Public Claims Management in Germany Martin Benner	111
Index of Authors	127