

Contents

1	Correlation of the Burushaski pronominal system with Indo-European and phonological and grammatical evidence for a genetic relationship.....	1
2	Evidence for a Burushaski-Phrygian connection: Burushaski hargín ‘dragon’ and Phrygian argwitas ‘dragon’ and the Indo-European words for ‘silver’	57
3	Burushaski qhimóor and Phrygian kimeros	69
4	Burushaski names of body parts of Indo-European origin	72
5	The Indo-European origin of the Burushaski kinship terminology	97
6	Burushaski shepherd vocabulary of Indo-European origin	122
7	Macedonian and South Slavic lexical correspondences with Burushaski	147
8	The Indo-European etymology of Burushaski sa ‘sun’, sar ‘shining; light’, sáñkus ‘sunlight’ and -sal- ‘to look at, watch’	165
9	Names of plants of Mediterranean and Balkan origin in Burushaski	170
10	Abbreviations	173
11	References	176
12	Indexes	186