

p. 3 Preface	p. 52 Gilles Saussier: The Ruins of Photojournalism and Documentary Spolia	p. 86 Jan Wenzel: Crossmapping with Capa, Miller, and Bourke-White. Or Walking through Leipzig in April with Some Photographs in Hand
p. 6 What Is an Event?	p. 63 Johann Peter Hebel: Misfortune Befalls the City of Leyden	p. 96 Eva Leitolf: German Images – Looking for Evidence
p. 11 Not the Production of Images but Their Usage	p. 64 Bertolt Brecht: Work Journal Khaled Barakeh: Facebook Post	p. 100 Ariella Azoulay: The Natural History of Rape
p. 12 The Multicultural Graveyard. Conversation with Khaled Barakeh about One Facebook Post	p. 66 Just Exactly Right Now	p. 114 Khaled Barakeh: Transparencies
p. 16 Bertolt Brecht: War Primer	p. 70 Bettina Lockemann: État d'Urgence	p. 117 That Which Is Not Photographed Critiques That Which Is
p. 20 A Boy Taken out of Context	p. 74 End of Show. Friday, November 13, 2015	p. 118 Sven Johné: Greece Series
p. 25 That Which Is Lasting Is Fleeting	p. 76 In the Wreckage of Daily Life	p. 120 Viable Avenues of Reporting to Pursue
p. 26 George Strock: Three Americans	p. 78 Dagmar Keller and Martin Wittwer: Point de Départ	p. 124 Gilles Raynaldy: Jean-Jaurès
p. 28 Anne König: A Classroom for the Khalil Family. In Search of Images along Leipzig's Tarostrasse	p. 82 In a Landscape Where Nothing Remained Unchanged but the Clouds	p. 128 Erratum for The Family of Man
p. 42 For Photography as a Means of Chronicling	p. 84 Experience Comes out of Cooperation	p. 130 Sleepers
p. 44 Jonas Zilius: Olympia
p. 48 Productive Iconoclasm
p. 50 Joseph Eid: Palmyra		