

Contents

Prologue	1
1. Introduction to the Theme - Organisational Structures of the WRI	3
1.1. Thematic exposition of the subject	5
1.2. Literature, Material and Methodology	6
2. The Political Insight of the WRI in the Period of 1921-1939	7
2.1. The WRI Declaration	7
2.2. Socio-political References	9
2.2.1. The Social Representatives and Forms of War Resistance	9
2.2.2. The Emergence of "Active Pacifism"	13
2.2.3. Refusal of Military Service and Alternative Service	15
2.2.4. The State: The Main Cause of War According to the WRI	16
2.2.5. Refusal of Military Service and Strategies of Disarmament	17
2.3. Socio-philosophical References	18
2.3.1. Conscientious Objection and Nonviolence as "Heroic Ideals"	18
2.3.2. Suffering and Voluntary Suffering	21
2.3.3. "Mind/Spirit and Deed" as Constituent Elements of "Active Pacifism"	22
2.3.4. The Concept of "the Absolute" as understood in "Active Pacifism"	25
2.3.5. "Active Pacifism" as a Rigorist Culture Critique	26
2.4. Socio-Political Conceptions in the WRI's Social Critique and the Emergence of a "New Order"	28
2.5. Social Crises and the "Active Pacifism" of the WRI	32
2.5.1. Examples of Individual Criticism of the WRI	32
2.5.2. The WRI in the Spanish Civil War	34
2.5.3. Anti-fascist Positions in the WRI	35
2.5.4. WRI Activities in the Second World War	36
3. The Development of the Political Insight of the WRI after the Second World War	37
3.1. Amendments to the Declaration of Principles	39
3.2. Examples of Later Discussions About Self-Appreciation	40
3.2.1. Discussions about a WRI Manifesto	44
3.2.2. Present Political Trends within the WRI	55
4. Conclusion	59
Sources, notes, bibliography	62
>>Peace News<< artikel: The flaw in the peoples' army	83