

Content

Declaration of the Stockholm International Forum on the Holocaust	9
About the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA)	11
Preface	13
Brigitte Bailer/Juliane Wetzel
Opening Remarks	15
Benno Böttig
Opening Remarks	18
Andrea Schweizer
Foreword	19
Yehuda Bauer
Foreword	25
Steven T. Katz
Foreword	32
Wichert ten Have
 IDEOLOGY—THE GERMAN AND AUSTRIAN CASES
 Regula Argast
Swiss Eugenics and its Impact on Nazi Racial Hygiene	37
 Paul Weindling
The Need to Name: The Victims of Nazi “Euthanasia” of the Mentally and Physically Disabled and III 1939–1945	49

WESTERN EUROPE

Isabelle von Bueltzingsloewen

Starvation in French Asylums During the German Occupation Reality and Misinterpretations	85
---	-----------

Cecile aan de Stegge

Excess Mortality and Causes of Death in Dutch Psychiatric Institutions 1940–1945	97
---	-----------

EASTERN EUROPE

Michal V. Šimůnek/Milan Novák

Aktion T4 in Bohemia and Moravia and its Context, 1939–1941	127
--	------------

Filip Marcinowski/Tadeusz Nasierowski

The Extermination of People with Disabilities in Occupied Poland The Beginning of Genocide	135
---	------------

Alexander Friedman

Murders of the Ill in the Minsk Region in 1941 and their Historic Reappraisal in the Soviet Union and the Federal Republic of Germany	150
--	------------

Björn M. Felder

Starvation, Mass Murder, and Experimentation Nazi “euthanasia” in the Baltics 1941–1944	175
--	------------

CONTINUITIES AND COMPARISONS

Sara Berger

“Murder was already their profession.” “Aktion T4” Staff in the “Aktion Reinhardt” Extermination Camps	203
---	------------

EDUCATION ON MASS MURDER OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES AND HOLOCAUST EDUCATION—SIMILARITIES, POSSIBLE SYNERGIES

Florian Schwanninger

Hartheim Castle Learning and Memorial Centre

The difficult path to a place of Documentation, Commemoration and Education 213

Jan Erik Schulte

Hadamar Memorial Museum—Gedenkstätte Hadamar 231

Thomas Lutz

Mass Murder of People with Disabilities and the Holocaust
Some Remarks 234

Otto Rühl

Educating About the Mass Murder of People with Disabilities 239

David Silberklang

Yad Vashem, Holocaust Education, and Education on the Murder of People with Disabilities 252

Authors 255