

Contents

page

Introduction	4
A note on the sources	8
1 The weaknesses of the Weimar Republic	9
The birth of the Weimar Republic	9
The Treaty of Versailles	18
2 The essence of National Socialism and the development of the Nazi party, 1920–28	27
The foundations of National Socialism	27
Mein Kampf	38
Organisation and tactics, 1924–28	41
Nazi party supporters	45
3 The collapse of the Weimar Republic and Hitler's accession to the Chancellorship	51
The strengths and weaknesses of the Weimar Republic, 1924–28	51
The economy	53
The political situation	55
Germany's international position	56
Weimar governments and the economic crisis, 1928–32	59
The fall of the Brüning government	62
The road to power, May 1932–January 1933	63
4 The Nazi regime at home	72
The making of a dictatorship	72
The nature of the Nazi regime	79
Economic policy	84
Nazi policy towards the Jews	88
5 The foreign policy of the Third Reich	94
Hitler's aims	94
The alliance with England	99
Responsibility for the outbreak of war, 1937–39	101
Responsibility for the extension of the war	112
6 Responses to Nazi rule	117
The acquiescent majority	123
Plebiscites	124
Individual responses to Hitler	126
Committed supporters	128
Resistance to Hitler	132
Open protest	133
Covert resistance	135
Attempts to remove Hitler by force	136
Bibliography	140
Acknowledgements	142
Index	143