

CONTENTS

Introduction	vi
Dominant Scientific Methodological Views: Alternatives and Their Implications David Edge	1
Religion, Values and Science Education Ian G. Barbour	10
Values, Responsibilities and Commitments in the Teaching of Science Charles Birch	20
Moral Development and Education Gerhard Portele	31
Reasoning in Science and Ethics Gerrit Manenschijn	37
Collective Social Decision-Making: Implications for Teaching Science Glen S. Aikenhead	55
Ethics in the Classroom: Goals and Experiences Harrie Eijkelhof	68
Implementing Educational Innovations Alfred K.F. Schermer	79
Science Education and Society
Summary of the Discussion Howard Davis	90
Report	93
Science Education in Universities
Summary of the Discussion Henk Verhoog	98
Report	101
Science Education in Secondary Schools and Teacher Training Institutes: Integrated Report	107
List of Participants	112