

Contents

Introduction .....	7
--------------------	---

The Late Modern English Grammatical Tradition

RICHARD W. BAILEY (MICHIGAN) The Ideology of English in the Long Eighteenth Century.....	21
---	----

CAROL PERCY (TORONTO) The Art of Grammar in the Age of Sensibility: The Accidence [...] for [...] Young Ladies (1775).....	45
---	----

JOAN c. BEAL (SHEFFIELD) John Walker: Prescriptivist or Linguistic Innovator?.....	83
---	----

LYNDA MUGGLESTONE (OXFORD) Proof and Process: The Making of the Oxford English Dictionary .....	107
--	-----

The Syntax of Late Modern English

MAURIZIO GOTTI (BERGAMO) Central Modal Verbs in Three 18th-Century English Grammars...	131
---	-----

ILSE WISCHER (POTSDAM) The Treatment of Aspect Distinctions in 18th- and 19th-Century Grammars of English.....	151
--	-----

RAFAL MOLENCKI (SILESIA) Proscriptive Prescriptivists: On the Loss of the 'Pleonastic' Perfect Infinitive in Counterfactual Constructions in Late Modern English.....	175
--	-----

UWE VOSBERG (PADERBORN) Cognitive Complexity and the Establishment of -ing Constructions with Retrospective Verbs in Modern English.....	197
ELENA SEOANE POSSE (SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA) The Codification of Indefinite Agents in Early and Late Modern English.....	221
Language and Context in the Late Modern Period
INGRID TIEKEN-BOON VAN OSTADE (LEIDEN) Lowth's Language.....	241
TONY FAIRMAN (MAIDSTONE) Letters of the English Labouring Classes and the English Language, 1800-34.....	265
MARINA DOSSENA (BERGAMO) Modality and Argumentative Discourse in the Darien Pamphlets.....	283
ROBERT MCCOLL MILLAR (ABERDEEN) 'Blind attachment to inveterate custom'. Language Use, Language Attitude and the Rhetoric of Improvement in the first Statistical Account .....	311
AGNIESZKA KIELKIEWICZ-JANOWIAK (POZNAŃ) Language and Society in the Diaries of Two Women in Early New England.....	331
RAYMOND HICKEY (ESSEN) How and Why Supraregional Varieties Arise.....	351
Notes on Contributors.....	375