Contents

Introduction

By Stephen G. Hall, Ullrich Heilemann, and Peter Pauly 9

First Session: Keynote Speech

US and NAFTA – Some First Experiences and Modelling

By Lawrence R. Klein 15

Second Session: New Models for Europe

Modelling the Euro-11 Economy: A Supply-Side Approach

By Michael Beeby, Stephen G. Hall, and S.G. Brian Henry 19

Using EDGE – A Dynamic General Equilibrium Model of the Euro Area

By Mika Kortelainen and David G. Mayes 41

A Small Global Forecasting Model

By David Rae and David Turner 79

Third Session: Modelling Experience in Country Models

Structural Modelling of the Euro Area

By Gabriel Fagan, Jérôme Henry, and Ricardo Mestre 115

The Consequences of EMU Entry for Spain and Portugal – Simulations Using the MacSim System

By Jean Louis Brillet and Maria Dos Santos 131

Shifts or Breaks? – West German Macroeconomic Parameters and European Integration

By Ullrich Heilemann, György Barabas, and Hiltrud Nehls 167

Fourth Session: Policy in the New Environment

Decision Making within the ECB: Simple Monetary Policy Rules Evaluated in an Encompassing Framework

By Ray Barrell, Karen Dury, and Ian Hurst 191

Money Demand in Europe: Evidence from Panel Cointegration Tests

By Christian Schumacher and Christian Dreger 207

List of Authors 223