

Contents

A Shot into Space	9	Ready for the Front
		"Miracle weapons" in use – 1944 to 1945	80
Traces in the Sand		Leaving in Haste
The birth of German rocket science – 1927 to 1936	12	Peenemünde is evacuated – 1944 to 1945	92
Heading for the Island		The Victors' Spoils
Building the test centre and developing ballistic weapons – 1936 to 1942	20	The secret operations "Backfire", "Paperclip" and "Osoaviachim" – 1945 to 1948	103
Building the test centre	20	Operation "Backfire"	103
Developing ballistic weapons up to 3 October 1942	32	Operations "Overcast" / "Paperclip"	106
		Operation "Osoaviachim"	113
The Serpent's Egg		After-Effects and New Beginnings
Preparing for mass production – 1942 to 1943	39	Disassembly site, military territory, memorial – 1945 to the present	119
The first prototypes	39	A new occupation	120
Identification by the Allies	46	Demilitarisation	124
Peenemünde before the attack	50	Chaos and change	125
Bombs over Peenemünde	53	Memorial and museum	126
Weapons Testing		Appendix
In the military training areas at Blizna and Tüchel – 1943 to 1944	58	Footnotes	132
Withdrawal to the Tunnels		Archives, interviews, literature	135
The concentration camp factory		Chronology	137
Mittelbau-Dora – 1943 to 1945	65	List of illustrations	140
Relocation to the Harz Mountains	65	Index of names	141
Mittelwerk manufacturing	70	The authors	143
Resistance through sabotage	74
The men who pulled the strings	76
The end	78		