

Contents

List of Maps, Figures and Boxes	9
Acknowledgements	11
 0. Introduction	 13
 I) Multilevel Urban Governance: Origin, Core Issues, Current Debates
 1. Theories of Urban Politics and Policies in a Changing Context	 29
1.1. The Establishment of Urban Studies in an Era of Dominant Nation States	30
1.2. Regulation Theory: The Crisis of Fordism /Keynesianism as a Crisis of Nation States.....	35
1.3. A Resurgence of Cities as Partly Autonomous Political Actors?	40
1.4. Towards a Framework for Systematic Comparative Urban Political Studies	46
 2. From Urban Government to Multilevel Urban Governance	 53
2.1. 'Governance': A Multifaceted Empirical Counter-Concept to 'Government'	53
2.2. Multilevel Urban Governance Analysis: Beyond the 'Urban Regime' Approach.....	65

3. Integrated Multilevel Urban Governance Analysis: Comparing Neostructuralist and Neo-Weberian Approaches	71
3.1. Phases of State Spatial Structuration: Brenner's Neostructuralist Interpretation.....	72
3.2. The European City: Le Galès' Neo-Weberian Approach.....	85
3.3. A Critical Comparison of Neo-Weberianism and Neostructuralism and the Formulation of a Shared Analytical Framework	99

II) Metropolitan Governance Reforms in Stockholm and Helsinki: An Indicator for Governance Transformations in Sweden and Finland

4. Explaining the Rationale of the Research Focus	111
5. The Nordic Countries: A Comprehensive Political and Societal Model	117
5.1. Finland and Sweden as Two Nordic Countries: A Brief Introduction	118
5.2. Institutional Context and Political Culture.....	123
5.3. The Role of Municipalities Within the Political System of Nordic Countries	131
5.4. The 1990s: A True Challenge for the Nordic Model.....	140

6. The Helsinki and Stockholm Regions in Context: Structural Characteristics, Recent Trends and New Challenges	151
6.1. Trajectories of Urbanization in Finland and Sweden	151
6.2. Metropolitan Helsinki and Stockholm: Main Structural Characteristics	156
6.3. Newly Arising Challenges and Problems in the Two Capital Regions: A Call for More Integrated Metropolitan Governance.....	165
7. Metropolitan Cooperation, Integration and Conflict: Comparing Modes of Governance in the Finnish and Swedish Capital Regions	173
7.1. Economic Growth and International Competitiveness.....	173
7.2. Promoting Socio-Spatial Cohesion, Combating Segregation.....	182
7.3. Sustainable Development of Infrastructure and Housing	190
7.4. Institutionalizing Metropolitan Governance to Boost the Capital Region's Voice?	201
8. Concluding Assessments.....	211
8.1. Prevailing Modes of Governance in Helsinki and Stockholm: Similar Policy Responses Given Similar Contextual Framework Conditions?.....	211
8.2. Reconsidering the Applicability of Neostructuralist and Neo-Weberian Hypotheses to Metropolitan Helsinki and Stockholm.....	223
List of References	233