CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS vii

INTRODUCTION: The ethnographic chiasmus 1

PROLOGUE: Our barjo brought us together! Obituary for Baldambe 13

PART I: RHETORICAL CREATION OF CULTURE AND SELF

Rhetoric in the creation of Hamar culture 29

‘Face’ and the person 45

Do the Hamar have a concept of honour? 71

PART II: RHETORICS OF WAR AND PEACE

Speech situations and social control 89

Michele - How the whipping wand speaks 107

Political discourse in an egalitarian society 123

To share or not to share: Notes on authority and anarchy 135

Lomotor’s talk, or the imperial gerund 157

Predicaments of war and peace 169

Temptations of war and the struggle for peace 181

Rhetoric in the context of war 229
PART III: RHETORICAL ARTICULATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND BELIEF

The genius loci of Hamar 257
Rhetorics of local knowledge 289
Meanings and rhetoric of the barjo aela 315
Magic and the rhetorical will 323
Mantic and magical confidence: The work of persuasion 333

EPILOGUE: What caused Baldambe's death? 347

BIBLIOGRAPHY 355

MAP: The Hamar and their neighbours 365

GLOSSARY 367

INDEXES

Index of themes 369
Index of dramatis personae 393
Index of places and peoples 397
Index of authors 399