Table of Contents

Sarah Iles Johnston
Foreword ................................................. V
Table of Contents ........................................ VII
List of Abbreviations ..................................... XI
Introduction ............................................. 1

Part I: Narrative

Loveday Alexander
The Virgin and the Goddess.
Women and Religion in the Greek Romance ............... 11

Patricia D. Ahearne-Kroll
The Portrayal of Aseneth in Joseph and Aseneth.
Women’s Religious Experience in Antiquity and the Limitations of Ancient Narratives .................................. 39

Mary Rose D’Angelo
Roman Imperial Family Values and the Gospel of Mark.
The Divorce Sayings (Mark 10:2–12) ........................ 59

James A. Kelhoffer
A Tale of Two Markan Characterizations.
The Exemplary Woman Who Anointed Jesus’ Body
for Burial (14:3–9) and the Silent Trio Who Fled the Empty Tomb (16:1–8) ................................. 85

Turid Karlsen Seim
Motherhood and the Making of Fathers in Antiquity.
Contextualizing Genetics in the Gospel of John .......... 99
Table of Contents

Clare K. Rothschild
Embryology, Plant Biology, and Divine Generation in the Fourth Gospel  ........................................... 125

Jan Willem van Henten
Blaming the Women.
Women at Herod's Court in Josephus'
Jewish Antiquities 15.23-231  ........................................... 153

Robert Doran
To Bear or Not To Bear.
The Argument for Abstinence in the Greek Gospel of the Egyptians  ........................................... 177

Candida R. Moss
Blood Ties.
Martyrdom, Motherhood, and Family in the Passion of Perpetua and Felicitas  ........................................... 189

Jeremy F. Hultin
A New Web for Arachne and a New Veil for the Temple.
Women and Weaving from Athena to the Virgin Mary  .... 209

Part II: Ritual

Fritz Graf
Victimology.
Or, How to Blame Someone for an Untimely Death  .......... 227

Radcliffe G. Edmonds III
Blaming the Witch.
Some Reflections upon Unexpected Death  ................. 241

Stephen J. Davis
Forget Me Not.
Memory and the Female Subject in Ancient Binding Spells  .... 255

Matt Jackson-McCabe
Women and Eros in Greek Magic and the Acts of Paul and Thecla  .... 267
Table of Contents

Carin M. C. Green
Holding the Line.
Women, Ritual, and the Protection of Rome ........................................... 279

Part III: Logos

Paul A. Holloway
Gender and Grief.
Seneca’s Ad Marciam and Ad Helviam matrem ........................................... 299

Christopher N. Mount
Religious Experience, the Religion of Paul, and Women in Pauline Churches ............................................................. 323

Outi Lehtipuu
The Example of Thecla and the Example(s) of Paul.
Disputing Women’s Roles in Early Christianity ........................................... 349

Annette Bourland Huizenga
Sōphrosynē for Women in Pythagorean Texts ............................................. 379

Judith L. Kovacs
Becoming the Perfect Man.
Clement of Alexandria on the Philosophical Life of Women ...................... 401

Susan E. Myers
The Spirit as Mother in Early Syriac-Speaking Christianity ...................... 427

List of Contributors ................................................................. 463

Index of Ancient Texts .............................................................. 465

Index of Modern Authors ............................................................ 497

Index of Subjects ................................................................. 505