Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................ iii
Preface ....................................................... v
Abbreviations .............................................. vii
Introduction ................................................ 1

Chapter I
SUFFERING OF THE BATTERED WOMEN OF MAHER
Socio-Economic-Religious Situation and the Status of Women in India ............................................. 7

1. Presenting the Problem
   1.1. Socio-Economic-Religious Situation of India .......... 9
       1.1.1. Economic Poverty ............................................. 10
       1.1.2. Pluriform Religiosity ......................................... 10
           1.1.2.1. The Caste System ....................................... 12
           1.1.2.2. Situation of Dalits ...................................... 13
       1.2. The State of Women in India ............................ 14
           1.2.1. Positive side of Indian Women ......................... 14
           1.2.2. The Role of Religion and Tradition in the Lives of Indian Women ........................................ 15
           1.2.3. Various Types of Violence ............................... 16

2. Women’s Movements
   2.1. Maher a Home, a Haven .................................... 19
       2.1.1. Beginning of Maher – Dawn of Hope to the Battered and Bruised
              Women .......................................................... 19
       2.1.2. Role of Maher in the Lives of Oppressed Women .......... 20
       2.1.3. Maher – An Inter-religious Project ....................... 21

3. In-depth Interviews – Life Histories of the Battered Women of Maher
   3.1. Procedure .................................................. 23
   3.2. Choosing the Respondents ................................. 23
Chapter 2

JESUS AND THE LEAST – BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVE
Exegesis and Interpretations of the Text Mt. 25: 31-46. 41

1. Introduction

1.1. Significance of Mt.25: 31-46 for this Study. 44
  1.1.1. Identity of Matthew 45
  1.1.2. Focus of Matthew 45

1.2. Characteristics of Matthew 45
  1.2.1. Bearing Fruit 45
  1.2.2. Separation Scenes 45
  1.2.3. Proclamation of the Kingdom 46
  1.2.4. Context of Mt. 25: 31-46 46
  1.2.5. Origin of Mt. 25: 31-46 47
  1.2.6. Structure of Mt.25: 31-46 49
2. Exegesis of Mt. 25: 31-46

2.1. Explanation of the Words .............................................. 51
2.1.1. King ............................................................................ 51
2.1.1.1. Jesus (the Son of Man) as King in the Gospel of Matthew 52
2.1.2. All the People (πάντα τὰ ἔθνη) ...................................... 53
2.1.2.1. All the People – The Church or the Christians ............ 54
2.1.2.2. All the People – The Gentiles ................................. 55
2.1.2.3. All the People – All Humanity ................................. 57
2.1.3. Least (οἱ ἐλάχιστοι) ......................................................... 58
2.1.3.1. Least – The Christians or the Disciples of Jesus ........ 59
2.1.3.2. Least – All the Poor and the Needy ......................... 62

3. How Mt. 25: 31-46 has been Operative in History
   (Wirkungsgeschichte)

3.1. Various Interpretations on Mt. 25: 31-46 ............................ 66
3.1.1. 3.1.1 Universal Interpretation ....................................... 66
3.1.2. Exclusive Interpretation .............................................. 69
3.1.3. Classic Interpretation .................................................. 70
3.2. Matthew 25:31-46 in the Teachings of the Church ............. 73
3.2.1. Vatican II and its Interpretation of Mt.25: 31-46 ............. 73
3.3. Mt. 25: 31-46 and Liberation Theology ............................. 76
3.4. MT. 25: 31-46 and Other Religions ................................. 77
3.5. Christological Relevance of Mt.25:31-46. ......................... 78

4. Summary Remarks

Chapter 3

INCARNATION OF JESUS – PARTAKING IN HUMAN SUFFERING
Christological Contributions of Samuel Rayan from a
Socio-Economic Perspective ............................................. 83

1. Introduction

1.1. Samuel Rayan: Theologian of the Poor and the Oppressed .... 86
1.1.1. Biographical details of Rayan. ..................................... 86
1.1.2. Praxis Oriented Theology of Rayan ............................. 86
1.1.3. Theologizing from the Poor and for the Poor .................. 87
1.1.4. Challenges to Theology According to Rayan .................. 88

xi
2. Rayan’s Christology from below

2.1. This Man Jesus ............................................. 92
2.2. Jesus the Word made Flesh ................................. 93
2.3. Jesus the Immanuel: God-with-us ....................... 96
2.4. Jesus’ Incarnation: Partaking in Human Suffering .... 98
2.5. Jesus the Embodiment of Divine Compassion .......... 100
2.6. Jesus the Liberator ........................................ 101
2.7. Jesus and the Father ....................................... 105
2.8. Jesus the Giver of the Spirit .............................. 107

3. Rayan’s Guidelines for an Indian Christology

3.1. Indian Christology .......................................... 111
3.2. Christological Lineaments for an Indian Christology ...... 112
   3.2.1. Liberation from Saösära or Bondage .............. 112
   3.2.2. Discovering the Atman .................................. 113
   3.2.3. Sense of Service and shared Responsibility for Social Action .. 114
   3.2.4. Antaryamin: The Indwelling Presence of Christ .... 114
   3.2.5. Understanding of History from Christian and Hindu Perspective .. 115
   3.2.6. Existential Approach- Insights from Other Religions .... 118

4. Summary Remarks

Chapter 4

CHRISTOPHANY: MANIFESTATIONS OF CHRIST
Christological Contributions of Raimon Panikkar from a Religio-Cultural Perspective .................................. 125

1. Introduction

1.1. Life and Works of Panikkar ............................... 128
1.2. Context of Panikkar’s Theological Reflections ........... 130
1.3. Challenges to Indian Christology ......................... 131
1.4. Limits of Traditional Christology ......................... 132
1.5. Relevant Christology for an Indian Context ................ 133
1.6. The Task of Indian Christology ............................ 134

xii
2. Cosmotheandric Vision of Panikkar

2.1. Reality is Trinitarian ........................................ 137
   2.1.1. Human Dimension ........................................ 139
   2.1.2. Cosmic Dimension ........................................ 139
   2.1.3. Divine or the Depth Dimension ......................... 139

2.2. Cosmotheandric Intuition ................................. 140

3. Cosmotheandric Christ

3.1. Christ and Christianity ..................................... 144
   3.1.1. Christ is the Christian Symbol for the whole of Reality 145
   3.1.2. Historical Jesus and the Trans-historical Christ .......... 147
   3.1.3. Historical Jesus and His true Identity .................... 148
   3.1.4. Christ and History ..................................... 149
   3.1.5. Christ and the Church .................................. 150
   3.1.6. “Who is Jesus Christ?” ................................ 152
   3.1.7. Christ and Trinity ..................................... 153
   3.1.8. Christ and Mt.25: 31-46 .................................. 155

3.2. Christ and Other Religions ................................ 157
   3.2.1. Christ and Hinduism ................................... 159

4. Christophany: Panikkar’s Insight into the Mystery of Christ

4.1. Christophanic Experience ................................... 164

4.2. Role of Christophany ..................................... 165

4.3. Characteristics of Christophany ......................... 166

4.4. Christophany – A Bridge to Inter-religious Dialogue .... 168

4.5. Cosmotheandric Spirituality ................................ 170
   4.5.1. Commitment to the Earth ................................. 170
   4.5.2. Commitment to the Humans ................................ 170
   4.5.3. Commitment to the Divine ............................... 171

4.6. From Christology to Christophany ......................... 172

4.7. Significance of Panikkar’s Christophanic Contribution .... 173

5. Summary Remarks

Chapter 5

SIGNIFICANCE OF SUFFERING

xiii
FROM HINDU AND CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE . . . . . . 185

1. Introduction

2. Significance of Suffering: Christian and Hindu Perspective

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subsection</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.1. Christian Understanding of Suffering</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.1. Suffering and Evil</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2. Brief Theological Analysis</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.1. Process Theology</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.2. John Hick</td>
<td>192</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.3. Liberation Theology</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.4. Suffering according to Edward Schillebeeckx</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.3. Official Teaching of the Church – Salvifici Doloris</td>
<td>201</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.3.1. Sharing in the Suffering of Christ</td>
<td>201</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.4. Significance of Suffering in the Light of Mt.25</td>
<td>203</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.4.1. Mt.25 and the Question of Theodicy</td>
<td>203</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.4.2. Mt.25 and Theology of Suffering</td>
<td>203</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.4.3. Mt.25 and the Ontological Solidarity</td>
<td>205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2. Hindu Understanding of Suffering</td>
<td>208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.1. Suffering as Burden</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.1.1. Karma and the Question of Bondage</td>
<td>210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.2. Ways to cope with Suffering</td>
<td>211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.2.1. Karma-Yoga</td>
<td>211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.2.2. Bhakti-Yoga</td>
<td>211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.2.3. Jnana-Yoga</td>
<td>212</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. Hindu-Christian Encounter

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subsection</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1. The Way of Nirahamkara</td>
<td>213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2. The Way of Kenosis</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Significance of Suffering- Anthropic and Karmic Perspective

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subsection</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4.1. Relevance of our Discussion in the Light of Mt.25</td>
<td>218</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5. Summary Remarks

Chapter 6

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

HELPNESSNESS OF THE BATTERED WOMEN OF MAHER

xiv
1. Introduction

2. Helplessness of the Battered Women of Maher
   2.1. Present Helplessness of the Victims is a Witness to Inhumanity 227
   2.2. Implications of the Victimhood of these Women and the Future
        Eschatological Hope 228
   2.3. Theological Dignity 228

3. Christo-Centric Spirituality of Mt.25
   3.1. Suffering Women of Maher are the locus of Christ’s Identification 231
   3.2. Kenotic Life of Jesus is a True Inspiration for Rendering Selfless Service.
        3.2.1. Liberation of not only the Oppressed but the Perpetrators as well – Sign of Wholeness 232

4. Conclusion

Bibliography