Introduction

Zdzisław Krasnodębski, Stefan Garsztecki, Rüdiger Ritter (Bremen)
Myth, Lieux de Mémoire, and Collective Memory in Public Discourse 7

Part I: Politics with history after 1989 between overcoming of the past and new beginning

Zdzisław Krasnodębski (Bremen/Warsaw)
Solidarity: Contested Memory 21

Mykola Riabchuk (Kiev):
Revising the Totalitarian Legacy in a Post-Colonial Country:
Ukraine's Post-1991 Experience 43

Pawel Machcewicz (Warsaw)
The Institute of National Remembrance and the Legacy of Communism in Poland 79

Arvydas Anušauskas (Vilnius)
Politics and history in Lithuania 99

Part II: Conflicts around lieux de mémoire and foundation myths: East Central Europe and its relations to the Russian Federation

Darius Staliūnas (Vilnius)
The Uprising of 1863 as a Lithuanian Place of Memory 111

Genadz’ Saganovich (Minsk)
Contested Interpretation of the Battle of Orsha in 1514 in Belarusian and Russian Lieux de Mémoire 139

Andrzej Nowak (Kraków)
Russia, Empire, and Evil: Dilemmas and Temptations in Contemporary Russian Political Imagination 163
Part III: The Second World War as a Crucial Event for Collective Memory

Stefan Garsztecki (Chemnitz)
Memories of the Holocaust and the Jewish heritage in Belarus and Poland 197

Eugeniusz Mironowicz (Białystok)
Belarusian Guerrilla Fighters, 1941–44 221

Marek Jan Chodakiewicz (Washington)
The Chain of Memory, Interrupted: The Eastern Borderlands of the West, 1939–1947 and After 239

Vladyslav Grynevych (Kiev)
The Myth of War and the War of Myths: The Second World War in Mind of Ukrainian Society 283

Part IV: Town as Lieu de Memoire: Common or Shared Mental Map?

Rüdiger Ritter (Bremen)
Building Collective Memory: The Old Town of Vilnius 295

Eglė Rindzevičiūtė (Stockholm)
The City of Sovereigns: Governing Vilnius through Lieu de Mémoire 317

Stanisław Stępień (Przemyśl)
Przemyśl, A Multiethnic Town on the Polish-Ukrainian Border: Multiculturality, Its Loss, and Attempted Restoration 339

Viktoria Sereda (Lviv):
The Changing Symbolic Landscape of Lviv 359

Vyacheslav Shved (Grodno)
Ethnic Groups, History, and Memory in Grodno 387