

Contents

Preface	vii
The Crisis of the European Union in Light of a Constitutionalization of International Law – An Essay on the Constitution for Europe	1
I Why Europe is now more than ever a constitutional project	1
II The European Union must decide between transnational democracy and post-democratic executive federalism	12
III From the international to the cosmopolitan community	53
The Concept of Human Dignity and the Realistic Utopia of Human Rights	71
Appendix: The Europe of the Federal Republic	101
I After the bankruptcy: an interview	102

Contents

II	The euro will decide the fate of the European Union	119
III	A pact for or against Europe?	127
	Sources	140