Contents

Acknowledgements vii
List of Abbreviations ix

1. Introduction

Image, Loss, and Memory in the Work of Aby Warburg, W.G. Sebald, and Gerhard Richter 5

2. Aby Warburg

God Hides in the Detail: The Conundrum of Methodology 15

The Afterlife of Antiquity: Warburg’s Concept of Kulturwissenschaft 22

Iconology of the Interval: The Space in Between as Locus of Meaning 26

Image Atlas of Pure Un-Reason: Warburg’s Mnemosyne Project 33

A Tremendous Torso: The History of a Fragment 39

Ecstatic Nymph and Mourning River-God: The Question of Structure 42

Keeping Earth and the Heavens Apart: Finding a Diagrammatic Form 52

3. W.G. Sebald

Bearing Witness in the Current of Time: The Project of W.G. Sebald 55

Interplay of Materiality and Mentality: Sebald’s Two-World Theory 60

Inviting the Dead to the Table: Sebald’s Metaphysics of History 61

The Metaphysical Underside of Reality: Sebald’s Visual Semantics 66

Difficulties in the Recounting of Things: Inventory and Archive 74

The Book of Our History Lying Open: Sebald’s Philosophy of Collecting 75
Compiling of Lists, Indices and Catalogues: The Topic of Collecting 77

Representation Directly Opposed to Reality: The Poetics of Collecting 85

A Memory of Their Own: Pictures and Memory 94

As If the Dead Were Coming Back: Coincidence and Obscurity 98

The Nervature of Past Life: Images and Memory in Nach der Natur 102

The Sense of Vision: Images and Memory in Schwindel.Gefühle. 112

The Type-case of Forgotten Things: Images and Memory in Austerlitz 118

Obliterated by Additions: Images and Memory in Die Ausgewanderten 130

4. Gerhard Richter

Talk About Painting: The Work of Gerhard Richter 135

Sorry for the Photograph: Photography and Painting 137

Painting History: Images of Germany from the Mid-1960s 143

History Painting: Memory and Mourning in the Cycle 18. Oktober 1977 149

A Lot of Pigeonholes: Collection and Organization in Richter’s Atlas 163

5. Memory, Crisis, and Collection

The End of Archives: Making an Inventory in an Age of Forgetfulness 175

6. Conclusion 178

Bibliography 186