

Table of Contents

Preface

Information about COST

Published volumes resulting from COST Action A21

Series Editors Preface

Notes on Contributors

1. To go to law or not to go to law: regulating restorative justice Ivo Aertsen and David Miers	1
2. On the social theory of restorative justice Jiří Přibáň	14
3. Restorative justice developments in Austria Marianne Hilf	29
4. Restorative justice in Belgium Tinneke Van Camp and Vicky De Souter	60
5. Bulgaria on the road to restorative justice and victim-offender mediation Dobrinka Chankova and Emilia Staninska	101
6. A comparative study of national legislation: Finland Aarne Kinnunen, Juhani Iivari, Päivi Honkatukia, Aune Flinck and Johanna Seppälä	120
7. Restorative justice in France: a hard fight against penal logic Jacques Faget	146
8. Restorative justice developments in Germany Michael Kilchling	158
9. Restorative justice and victim-offender mediation in Hungary Borbala Fellegi, Edit Törzs and Edit Velez	210
10. Restorative justice and victim-offender mediation in Israel Mally Shechory, Sarah Ben David and Beni R. Jakob	246
11. The mediation and restorative justice movement in Poland Maria Nielaczna	268
12. Restorative justice and victim-offender mediation in Romania Doina Balahur	299
13. Comparative study of national legislation: the case of Slovenia Marko Bošnjak	321

14. Restorative justice in Spain: criminal legislation affecting juveniles and adults Anna Vall Rius	344
15. Victim-offender mediation in Turkey: legislation, practice and policy debates Galma Jahic, Asuman Aytekin Inceoğlu and Ulas Karan	383
16. Restorative justice and victim-offender mediation in the United Kingdom David Miers	420
17. Restorative justice: a comparative analysis of legislative provision in Europe David Miers and Ivo Aertsen	511