Table of Contents

Vorwort ............................................................... VII

List of Conference Participants .............................. IX

Thomas Welskopp, Alan Lessoff
Fractured Modernity – Fractured Experiences – Fractured Histories:
An Introduction ...................................................... 1

1. Constructions of Consciousness

Jürgen Martschukat
“Peculiarly a phenomenon of modern times”: Bachelors, Urban Vice,
and Strategies of Regulation in Modern America, 1870–1930 .......... 21

Daniel Siemens
The “True Worship of Life”: Changing Notions of Happiness, Morality, and Religion in the United States, 1890–1940 ........................ 43

2. Transnational Perspectives

Alan Lessoff
American Progressivism: Transnational, Modernization, and Americanist
Perspectives ......................................................... 61

Frank Uekötter
Conservation: America’s Environmental Modernism? .................. 81

3. Media, Politics, and Political Economy

Linards Udris
The Press and the Repeal of National Prohibition .................... 95

Christopher McKnight Nichols
Modernity and Political Economy in the New Era and New Deal ...... 129
4. Race and Claims to Modernity

Manfred Berg
Lynching and the Ambivalence of Modernity .......................... 151

Silvan Niedermeier
Torture and "Modern Civilization": The NAACP's Fight against Forced Confessions in the American South (1935–1945) ......................... 169

5. The Search for a Cultural Core of Modernity

Norbert Finzsch
The Harlem Renaissance, 1919–1935: American Modernism, Multiple Modernities or Postcolonial Diaspora? ................................. 191

Michael Hochgeschwender
The Scopes Trial in the Context of Competing Modernity Discourses .... 213

Alan Lessoff
Conclusion ................................................................. 235

Authors ................................................................. 241