Contents

VLJAY K. BHATIA
Foreword .................................................................................................................. 9

CARMEN SANCHO GUINDA / MAURIZIO GOTTI
Weaving a Narrative Paradigm in Academic and Professional Communication ...................................................................................................... 13

Narratives in Academic Genres

ANNA MAURANEN
“But then when I started to think...”:
Narrative Elements in Conference Presentations ................................................. 45

BEGOÑA BELLÉS FORTUÑO
Marginal Stories in Classroom Asides ................................................................. 67

CHRISTINE FEAK
Insights into the Academy: Narratives in and of Public Meetings of the University .................................................................................................................. 81

YIANNIS GABRIEL
Researchers as Storytellers:
Storytelling in Organizational Research .............................................................. 105

MARINA BONDI
Historians as Recounters: Description across Genres ........................................ 123
MARCO DE MARTINO
Illness Narratives: Gender and Identity in Patients’ Accounts ........ 319

RUTH BREEZE
Traversing Legal Narratives ..................................................... 343

PATRIZIA ANESA
Multiple Narratives in Arbitration Processes .......................... 363

CARMEN SANCHO GUINDA
The Tell and Show of Aviation-Catastrophe Synopses .......... 385

ELIZABETH DE GROOT
Getting the Picture in Annual Reports: A Reflection on the Genre-based Analysis of Photographic Narrative .......... 413

ISABEL CORONA MARZOL
Lives in Retrospective: the Journalistic Obituary ...................... 443

ISMAEL ARINAS PELLÓN

BRIAN PALTRIDGE
Afterword ...................................................................................... 497

Notes on Contributors ................................................................ 503