Content

Preface 8
Introduction 10

1. The Acrobatics Experience 15
   1.1 Joint Action 17
   1.2 Physical Experience 20
   1.3 Confidence – Trust 26

2. Important Basic Biomechanical Principles 31
   2.1 Correct Posture 32
   2.2 Stress on the Spine 36
   2.3 Stress on the Wrists 37

3. Starting Out, but How? 39
   3.1 The Framework 40
   3.2 Important Information for Getting Started 42
   3.3 Acrobatics with Children 43
   3.4 Acrobatics with Teenagers 46
   3.5 Planning Practice Sessions 47

4. Putting Together Performances 51
   4.1 Staging a Performance 54
   4.2 Structuring a Performance 56

5. Preparatory Exercises 61
   5.1 Exercises for Self-Awareness and Awareness of Others 62
   5.2 Partner Exercises for Body Tension 68
   5.3 Trust Exercises 71
   5.4 Partner Exercises for Balance 74
6. Basic Principles of Building Human Pyramids
   6.1 Glossary
   6.2 Grips
   6.3 Basic Elements of Building a Human Pyramid
   6.4 Four-Person Pyramids
   6.5 Five-Person Pyramids
   6.6 Six-Person Pyramids
   6.7 Seven-Person Pyramids
   6.8 Pyramids with Eight or More People

7. Fantasy Formations

8. Dynamic Elements

9. Principles of Partner Acrobatics
   9.1 “Chair” and Variations
   9.2 “Flyer” with Variations
   9.3 Shoulder Stand with Variations
   9.4 Standing One on Top of the Other with Variations

10. Bibliography

11. Credits