Table of Contents

Introduction

Gurch Randhawa & Silke Schicktanz .................................................. 7

1 Constructing and studying the Public

1.1 Constructing “the public” attitudes toward financial incentives for organ donation: methodological and ethical implications
Silke Schicktanz & Klaus Hoeyer .................................................... 10

1.2 Why the altruism/self-interest dichotomy does not hold and should be avoided also in public perception studies related to ‘donation’
Kristin Zeiler .................................................................................. 18

1.3 To share or not to share your donor status on Facebook: public benefits, private risks
Mihaela Frunza, Eniko Demeny, Judit Sandor & Beatrice I loan .................. 27

2 Donation practice as a public policy issue

2.1 Enhancing public engagement in organ donation through the law: A comparison between Belgium and the United States of America
Anne-Cécile Squifflet ..................................................................... 36

2.2 Professional and personal attitudes towards organ and tissue donation and registration in the Donor Register – Lessons from the Netherlands
Nichon E. Jansen, Jeantine Reiger & Bernadette J. J. M. Haase-Kromwijk ........ 43

2.3 Evaluation of donation practices in Greece
Georgios Tsouftas & Vasilios Papanikolaou ...................................... 52

2.4 Consensus – a threat to active public engagement in organ donation
Anne Hambro Alnæs ....................................................................... 59

3 Public and social acceptance

3.1 The social acceptability of implementing morally challenging strategies to increase donor rates
David Rodriguez-Arias ................................................................. 70
Table of Contents

3.2 Taking a deceased organ donation decisions at the crossroad of affective and public health issues
Francesca Bosisio, Marie Santiago-Delefosse & Lazare Benaroyo ............................ 80

3.3 The role of faith/belief leaders in public engagement and organ donation
Kulwinder Kaur-Bola & Gurch Randhawa ................................................................. 91

3.4 A lesson about organ donation in primary school: a teachers’ perspective
Marion J. Siebelink, Petrie F. Roodbol, Marcel J. I. J. Albers & Harry B. M. van de Wiel . 100

3.5 Knowledge and attitudes towards organ donation among immigrant Kenyans: a perspective from the UK
Esther Kamau & Gurch Randhawa ................................................................. 107

3.6 Donor programmes and public support for organ donation in Slovenia: reflections of Slovenija Transplant
Danica Avsec & Jana Šimenc ................................................................. 114

3.7 Public engagement in organ donation and transplantation in Bulgaria: a comprehensive analysis
Assya Pascalev, Yordanka Krastev & Adelina Ilieva ......................................... 124

4 Cultural and social issues of interventions and concrete decision-making

4.1 Let’s talk about living donor kidney transplantation: Breaking the passive deadlock on living donation
Sohal Y. Ismail, Annemarie E. Luchtenburg, Wijd C. Zuidema, Willem Weimar, Jan J. van Busschbach & Emma K. Massey ................................................................. 136

4.2 The morality of giving and receiving living kidneys: Empirical findings on opinions of affected patients
Sabine Wöhle ................................................................. 144

4.3 Examining the relationship between deceased organ donation and religion: A case study of the Polish community in Luton and Dunstable
Chloe Sharp & Gurch Randhawa ................................................................. 153

4.4 Elements of the European jigsaw: the timing of the approach to bereaved families for consent to DBD or DCD donation and the implications for effective donation campaigns
Nichon E. Jansen, Bernadette J. J. M. Haase-Kromwijk, Magi Sque & Maryon McDonald ................................................................. 161

List of contributors ................................................................. 170