Contents

INTRODUCTION
Putting “Power” into Borderlands Studies.
“Bringing the State Back In” ................................................................. 9
   Harlan Koff

PART I. POLITICS, GOVERNANCE
AND POWER IN BORDER COMMUNITIES

CHAPTER 1
Power, Politics and Governance of Borderlands.
The Structure and Agency of Power ...................................................... 29
   Emmanuel Brunet-Jailly

CHAPTER 2
Good Friday Governance on the Island of Ireland.
The Cross-border Dimension ............................................................... 47
   Cathal McCall

CHAPTER 3
Border Burden. Public Security in Mexican Border
Communities and the Challenge of Polycentricity ............................... 63
   Daniel M. Sabet

PART II. POWER RELATIONSHIPS
IN CROSS-BORDER SPATIAL DEVELOPMENT

CHAPTER 4
Everyday Tactics and Strategies at the Eastern Border of the European Union ........................................................................ 89
   Bettina Bruns, Judith Miggelbrink, Kristine Müller,
   Andreas Wust & Helga Zichner

CHAPTER 5
Power Topographies in Cross-Border Spatial Development Policies ........................................................................... 111
   Christian Schulz

CHAPTER 6
Negotiating Border Regions. Retail Development in Luxembourg and the Greater Region ............................................. 125
   Julia Affolderbach
PART III. FLUID POWER: WATER MANAGEMENT IN BORDER COMMUNITIES

CHAPTER 7
Power and Cooperation in Mexico-United States
Water Management Since NAFTA ........................................ 151
Stephen P. Mumme & Oscar Ibañez

CHAPTER 8
Borders, Infrastructures and Power ................................... 177
Casey Walsh

CHAPTER 9
Water in the PITs. Power, Information and Transparency in Different Regional Contexts ......................... 193
Carmen Maganda

PART IV. POWER RELATIONSHIPS AND LANGUAGE PRACTICES IN BORDER COMMUNITIES

CHAPTER 10
State Borders and Language Change. The (Non-)Effects of Political Border Permeability on Language .................. 227
Peter Auer

CHAPTER 11
‘I learnt English – the wrong thing, eh’.
Power, Interests and Language Practices Among Cross-border Workers in Luxembourg ............................... 249
Anne Franziskus, Julia de Bres & Peter Gilles

CHAPTER 12
Group and Language Contact at the Brazilian-Argentinian and Brazilian-Uruguayan Borders ............................. 271
Göz Kaufmann

EPILOGUE
Thinking about Borders. Not Just on the Ground but Also in the Mind ................................................................. 315
John Agnew

Contributors ........................................................................... 335