Introduction · Cornelia Müller .................................................. 1

I. How the body relates to language and communication:
   Outlining the subject matter

1. Exploring the utterance roles of visible bodily action:
   A personal account · Adam Kendon ......................................... 7
2. Gesture as a window onto mind and brain, and the relationship to linguistic relativity and ontogenesis · David McNeill .................. 28
3. Gestures and speech from a linguistic perspective: A new field and its history · Cornelia Müller, Silva H. Ladewig and Jana Bressem ... 55
4. Emblems, quotable gestures, or conventionalized body movements · Sedinha TeBendorf .............................................. 82
5. Framing, grounding, and coordinating conversational interaction:
   Posture, gaze, facial expression, and movement in space · Mardi Kidwell ......................................................... 100
6. Homesign: When gesture is called upon to be language · Susan Goldin-Meadow ......................................... 113
7. Speech, sign, and gesture · Sherman Wilcox ........................... 125

II. Perspectives from different disciplines

8. The growth point hypothesis of language and gesture as a dynamic and integrated system · David McNeill ..................................... 135
9. Psycholinguistics of speech and gesture: Production, comprehension, architecture · Pierre Feyereisen ............................................. 156
10. Neuropsychology of gesture production · Hedda Lausberg ............. 168
11. Cognitive Linguistics: Spoken language and gesture as expressions of conceptualization · Alan Cienki ....................................... 182
12. Gestures as a medium of expression: The linguistic potential of gestures · Cornelia Müller ............................................... 202
13. Conversation analysis: Talk and bodily resources for the organization of social interaction · Lorenza Mondada .................................. 218 14. Ethnography: Body, communication, and cultural practices · Christian Meyer .................................................. 227
15. Cognitive Anthropology: Distributed cognition and gesture · Robert F. Williams ......................................... 240
16. Social psychology: Body and language in social interaction · Marino Bonaiuto and Fridanna Maricchiolo ............. 258
17. Multimodal (inter)action analysis: An integrative methodology • Sigrid Norris ................. 275
18. Body gestures, manners, and postures in literature • Fernando Poyatos ..................... 287

III. Historical dimensions
19. Prehistoric gestures: Evidence from artifacts and rock art • Paul Bouissac ..................... 301
20. Indian traditions: A grammar of gestures in classical dance and dance theatre • Rajyashree Ramesh .... 306
21. Jewish traditions: Active gestural practices in religious life • Roman Katsman ................... 320
22. The body in rhetorical delivery and in theater: An overview of classical works • Dorota Dutsch .... 329

37. Multimodal interaction • Lorenza Mondada .................................................. 577
38. Verbal, vocal, and visual practices in conversational interaction • Margret Selting ........................................................................ 589
39. The codes and functions of nonverbal communication • Judee K. Burgoon, Laura K. Guerrero and Cindy H. White .......... 609
40. Mind, hands, face, and body: A sketch of a goal and belief view of multimodal communication • Isabella Poggi .......... 627
41. Nonverbal communication in a functional pragmatic perspective • Konrad Ehlich ................................................................. 648
42. Elements of meaning in gesture: The analogical links • Geneviève Calbris ................................................................. 658
43. Praxeology of gesture • Jürgen Streeck .................................................. 674
44. A “Composite Utterances” approach to meaning • N. J. Enfield ........................................................................ 689
45. Towards a grammar of gestures: A form-based view • Cornelia Müller, Jana Bressem and Silva H. Ladewig ............. 707
46. Towards a unified grammar of gesture and speech: A multimodal approach • Ellen Fricke ...................................................... 733
47. The exbodied mind: Cognitive-semiotic principles as motivating forces in gesture • Irene Mittelberg ................................................. 755
48. Articulation as gesture: Gesture and the nature of language • Sherman Wilcox ......................................................... 785
49. How our gestures help us learn • Susan Goldin-Meadow ................................................................. 792
50. Coverbal gestures: Between communication and speech production • Uri Hadar .............................................................. 804
51. The social interactive nature of gestures: Theory, assumptions, methods, and findings • Jennifer Gerwing and Janet Bavelas 821

V. Methods
52. Experimental methods in co-speech gesture research • Judith Holler ........................................................................ 837
53. Documentation of gestures with motion capture • Thies Pfeiffer ........................................................................ 857
54. Documentation of gestures with data gloves • Thies Pfeiffer ........................................................................ 868
55. Reliability and validity of coding systems for bodily forms of communication • Augusto Gnisci, Fridanna Maricchiolo and Marino Bonaiuto ................................................................. 879
56. Sequential notation and analysis for bodily forms of communication • Augusto Gnisci, Roger Bakeman and Fridanna Maricchiolo ................................................................. 892
57. Decoding bodily forms of communication • Fridanna Maricchiolo, Angiola Di Conza, Augusto Gnisci and Marino Bonaiuto ........................................................................ 904
58. Analysing facial expression using the facial action coding system (FACS) • Bridget M. Waller and Marcia Smith Pasqualini ........................................................................ 917
59. Coding psychopathology in movement behavior: The movement psychodiagnostic inventory • Martha Davis ........................................................................ 932
60. Laban based analysis and notation of body movement • Antja Kennedy ........................................................................ 941
61. Kestenberg movement analysis • Sabine C. Koch and K. Mark Sossin ........................................................................ 958
62. Doing fieldwork on the body, language, and communication • N. J. Enfield ........................................................................ 974
63. Video as a tool in the social sciences • Lorenza Mondada ............ 982
64. Approaching notation, coding, and analysis from a conversational analysis point of view • Ulrike Bohle .................................................. 992
65. Transcribing gesture with speech • Susan Duncan ..................... 1007
66. Multimodal annotation tools • Susan Duncan, Katharina Rohlfing and Dan Loehr ....................................................... 1015
67. NEUROGES – A coding system for the empirical analysis of hand movement behaviour as a reflection of cognitive, emotional, and interactive processes • Hedda Lausberg ............................ 1022
68. Transcription systems for gestures, speech, prosody, postures, and gaze • Jana Bressem ...................................................... 1037
69. A linguistic perspective on the notation of gesture phases • Silva H. Ladewig and Jana Bressem ............................... 1060
70. A linguistic perspective on the notation of form features in gestures • Jana Bressem ...................................................... 1079
71. Linguistic Annotation System for Gestures (LASG) • Jana Bressem, Silva H. Ladewig and Cornelia Müller ............................ 1098
72. Transcription systems for sign languages: A sketch of the different graphical representations of sign language and their characteristics • Brigitte Garcia and Marie-Anne Sallandre .............. 1125
