

Contents

Introduction

The Re-creation of a Nonexistent Land .....	9
1. Theses on Absence .....	9
2. Pretexts for Coming into Existence .....	21
3. Toponymy as a Realm of Conflict.....	24
4. Where is Polish Livonia?.....	28

Chapter 1

German History of Livonia: The Conquistador Complex .....	33
1. “Aufsegelung Livlands” (“The Discovery of Livonia”).....	37
2. The Livonian Brothers of the Sword .....	40
3. The Ecclesiastical State of the Teutonic-Livonian Order.....	44
4. The Hanseatic League .....	47
5. The End of the Teutonic State and the Beginnings of Dependence .....	52
6. The Baltic Identity of the Germans .....	63
7. Kulturträger’s Pride .....	66
8. 1914–1918: The Beginning of the End.....	77
9. 1919–1939: The Great Minority.....	81
10. 1939–1945: The War. Expulsions. The End.....	86
11. Life After Life. The Relic. Dying Out.....	90
12. Coda.....	91

Chapter 2

Polish History of Livonia: Nowhereland .....	93
1. Incorporation: Voluntary Coercion .....	93
2. Stubbornness.....	100
3. Correction: Polish Livonia.....	107
4. Courland and Semigallia .....	109
5. Piltene .....	119
6. The Livonian Voivodeship: Churches and Administrative Offices .....	126

7. Livonians: Differentiations.....	131
8. Microhistory: Tracts and Foundations.....	140
9. Insurrections: Catholic (Meaning Polish?).....	153
10. Riga and Dorpat: Change of Status .....	162
11. The Interwar Period: A Quiet Funeral.....	165
12. The Final Years: Return .....	170
13. Coda.....	172

Chapter 3

First Digression: Formative Historiography .....	175
1. Between Fact and Fiction .....	178
2. History and Existence.....	183
3. Object and Verification .....	189
4. Representation .....	191
5. Closure.....	196
6. Hermeneutics: The Aporia of Truth .....	199
7. Tipping the Scales .....	202

Chapter 4

Project Livonia .....	213
1. Marcin Kwiatkowski from Rożyce: Outline .....	214
2. Jan August Hylzen: Argument .....	221
3. Gustaw Manteuffel: Patchwork.....	231

Chapter 5

Second Digression: Borderlands. Circulation of Discourses.....	255
1. The Elusive Borderlands .....	259
2. Deficient Diachrony .....	265
3. Identity as Choice and Coercion.....	268
4. Stubborn Regionalism .....	272
5. The Kingdom of Sentiment .....	275
6. Writing History.....	278
7. Geopoetics .....	280
8. Pointillism.....	282
9. Discourses in Circulation.....	284

Chapter 6

Polish-Livonian Literature .....	293
1. What does “Polish-Livonian” mean? .....	295
2. Konstancja Beniśławska: Modlka niepusta [Prayer Which Is Not Empty] .....	297
3. Rubon: Pszczelnik z krajowego kwiecia [A Bouquet of Native Flowers] .....	310
4. Adam Plater: Łajwas i zwoszczyks [Canoes and Rafts] .....	326
5. Kazimierz Bujnicki: A Periodical Traveler .....	330
6. Gustaw Manteuffel: A Hologram of Nationalism .....	341
7. Picturesque: Or, The Charms of the Daugava .....	352
8. Olga Dauksza: The Eyes of Daugava’s Loam .....	357
9. Kazimiera Hłakowiczówna: Kraslavan Existence .....	365

Conclusion

The Railroad Tracks Bypassed Pasiene .....	371
Coda .....	374

Appendix

Report of Research in the Latvian Academic Library and the Latvian National Library in Riga, 2005 .....	377
Riga’s First Printed Work .....	377
Panegyrics for Polish and Lithuanian Politicians .....	378
Responses to Politics .....	380
Riga and the Commonwealth at the End of the 17th Century .....	383
Summary .....	385
Suggestions for Further Research .....	386
A List of Attachments .....	387

Bibliography .....	391
I. A Bibliography of Works on Livonia .....	391
II. Theoretical Works .....	404