Table of Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements ........................................ 7

I. Theoretical Approaches, General Themes, Methodological Challenges

Robert Brier
- Entangled Protest: Dissent and the Transnational History of the 1970s and 1980s ........................................ 11

Padraic Kenney
- Electromagnetic Forces and Radio Waves or Does Transnational History Actually Happen? .................. 43

II. Mutual Contacts, East-West Intermediaries, Transnational Discourses

Tomáš Vilímek
- Oppositionists in the ČSSR and the GDR: Mutual Awareness, Exchanges of Ideas and Cooperation, 1968-1989 ........ 55

Julia Metger
- Writing the Papers: How Western Correspondents Reported the First Dissident Trials in Moscow, 1965-1972 .................. 87

Nenad Stefanov
- ‘Message in a Bottle’: Yugoslav Praxis Philosophy, Critical Theory of Society and the Transfer of Ideas between East and West ........................................ 109
Table of Contents

III. DISSENT, DÉTENTE AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Wanda Jarzabek

Bent Boel

Western European Social Democrats and Dissidence in the Soviet Bloc during the Cold War ............................. 151

IV. THE TRANSNATIONAL POLITICS OF SOLIDARITY AND PEACE

Kim Christiaens / Idesbald Goddeeris

The East versus the South: Belgian Solidarity Movements with Poland and Nicaragua during the Early 1980s .................. 173

Kacper Szulecki

Holger Nehring

The Politics of Security Across the ‘Iron Curtain’: Peace Movements in East and West Germany in the 1980s .................. 229

List of Abbreviations ...................................... 249

List of Contributors .................................... 255

Index of Persons ..................................... 257