

Contents

1. Prevention of drug dependence: a Utopian dream? Pierre Angel	9	In the name of God, the merciful, the compassionate. Drug education for elementary teacher-training colleges (Sudan)	51
2. A new programme at Unesco Nicole Friderich	15
3. Developing a prevention strategy Etienne Brunswic	27	II. The alternative approach
4. Evaluating preventive education Pierre Angel	33	Seminar on drug abuse. Rome 1978. Report.	53
Annexes: Examples of prevention work	35	An account of an experiment on the prevention of drug addiction in schools in an industrialized country (France)	56
I. The direct approach		Final report of a travelling seminar for educators and mass media specialists on problems associated with the use of drugs (South-East Asia)	59
Facts and feelings about drugs but decisions about situations. Teachers manual: a drug education manual outlining a short course for use in secondary schools, 1982 (United Kingdom)	37	III. Indirect and selective approaches
The Hexagonal Kite; Health education booklet: Special course on tobacco (Spain)	40	The people's theatre in the service of prevention (Mexico)	61
Material for teaching about smoking (Gabon)	42	Course for English-speaking African educators on the methodology of education concerning the problems associated with the use of drugs (Kenya)	64
Health careers. Teachers manual (United Kingdom)	46	Substance abuse among the elderly (Canada)	66
Healthy lifestyle camps. An alternative approach to drug education (Australia)	49	Women and prescription drugs (Canada)	69
		The drug situation in Spain	70

Rumours (Australia)	72
Scenes of family life (Federal Republic of Germany)	73
Voices from a far corner (Burma)	75
There is nothing wrong with medicines, but they can be wrongly used (France)	78

IV. Three experiments evaluated

Preventive education experiment in the field of use of drugs by young people (Philippines)	81
Preventing young people from smoking: an educational intervention at school (Canada)	83
Heroin misuse campaign evaluation: report of findings (United Kingdom)	85