

Table of contents

Chapter 1

Structural Adjustment – What we have learnt	9
--	---

Chapter 2

Greater Flexibility in the Labour Market	24
The experience of unemployment	26
Measuring real labour cost gaps	33
The wage formation process	42
Structural aspects of labour market performance	52
Other measures affecting unemployment	63
Conclusions	64

Chapter 3

Financial Markets: The Challenges of Modernisation	77
Pressures for change	78
General overview of change in financial markets	85
Some implications of change	96
Conclusions	111

Chapter 4

Industrial Adjustment: Freeing Initiative	118
The evolving OECD economies	119
The process of industrial adjustment	130
A new thrust to industrial policies	137
Macro-economic consequences of policies to strengthen competition	147
Conclusions	151

Chapter 5

The Public Sector: Restoring the Balance	156
Public expenditure: containing the expansion	157
Tax reform: motivation and design	168
Medium-term strategy: controlling government indebtedness	191
Conclusions	208