CONTENTS

Preface. ................................................................. vii

Introduction: Once Upon a Queer Time. ......................... I
KAY TURNER AND PAULINE GREENHILL

Faux Femininities

1. Whetting Her Appetite: What’s a “Clever” Woman To Do in the Grimms’ Collection? ......................... 27
CRISTINA BACCHILEGA

2. Nurtured in a Lonely Place: The Wise Woman as Type in “The Goose Girl at the Spring”. ......................... 49
KEVIN GOLDSTEIN

3. Queering Kinship in “The Maiden Who Seeks Her Brothers” .... 69
JEANA JORGENSEN

4. “But Who Are You Really?”: Ambiguous Bodies and Ambiguous Pronouns in “Allerleirauh” ......................... 91
MARGARET R. YOCOM

Revising Rewritings

5. A Desire for Death: The Grimms’ Sleeping Beauty in The Bloody Chamber ................................. 121
KIMBERLY J. LAU

Bibliografische Informationen
http://d-nb.info/1047088975
6. Happily Ever After . . . According to Our Tastes: Jeanette Winterson’s “Twelve Dancing Princesses” and Queer Possibility .............................................................. 141
   JENNIFER ORME

7. The Lost Sister: Lesbian Eroticism and Female Empowerment in “Snow White and Rose Red” .................... 161
   ANDREW J. FRIEDENTHAL

Queering the Tales

8. Queering Gender: Transformations in “Peg Bearskin,” “La Poiluse,” and Related Tales ............................. 181
   PAULINE GREENHILL, ANITA BEST, AND EMILIE ANDERSON-GRÉGOIRE

9. The True (False) Bride and the False (True) Bridegroom: “Fitcher’s Bird” and Gendered Virtue and Villainy .......... 207
   CATHERINE TOSENBERGER

    JOY BROOKE FAIRFIELD

11. Playing with Fire: Transgression as Truth in Grimms’ “Frau Trude” ................................................. 245
    KAY TURNER

Beyond the Grimms

12. Destroying Patriarchy to Save It: Safdár Tawakkoli’s Afghan Boxwoman ............................................. 277
    MARGARET A. MILLS

    ELLIOT GORDON MERCER

Appendix: Trans and Drag in Traditional Folktales .......... 303
Contributors ................................................................. 307
References ................................................................. 311
Index ............................................................................... 339