CONTENTS

VII Peter Mack
Preface

IX Jürgen Trabant
On Warburg, Bildakt and Embodiment

I. BILDAKT (PICTURE ACT)

3 Horst Bredekamp
The Picture Act: Tradition, Horizon, Philosophy

33 Joerg Fingerhut
Extended Imagery, Extended Access, or Something Else?
Pictures and the Extended Mind Hypothesis

51 Sascha Freyberg & Katharina Blühm
Bildakt Demystified. Remarks on Philosophical Iconology and Empirical Aesthetics

69 Pablo Schneider
Picture Act Method.
The Execution of Charles I in 1649 as a Picture Act

II. TRADITIONS

87 Franz Engel
Though This Be Madness: Edgar Wind and the Warburg Tradition

117 Tullio Viola
“Ein geistvoller Amerikaner”.
The Relevance of Charles S. Peirce to Debates on the Iconological Method.

http://d-nb.info/1048634094
III. THE ACTING BODY
139 Sabine Marienberg
Moving Speech.
The Body of Language in Embodiment Theories and Rhetoric

151 Yannis Hadjinicolou
"Not Only From His Hand but Also From His Temper".
‘Movement’ in the Art and Art Theory of the Rembrandtists

171 Ulrike Feist
Haptic Perception in Mattia Preti’s Doubting Thomas (1635/40)

189 Stefan Trinks
The Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela as a Tactile Theater

IV. THE LIVING BODY

223 Marion Lauschke
Bodily Communication in Picture Acts

231 Joris van Gastel
Life, but Not as We Know It.
Wax Images and the Denial of Death

252 Picture Credits