Contents

Acknowledgements x
Abbreviations xi
Chronology xiii

One
Adorno’s life and philosophical motivations 1
1. Life and philosophical development 2
2. Fundamental commitments and philosophical style 14
Further reading 22

Two
Society 23
1. The social totality 26
2. Criticisms of Adorno’s idea of totality 37
3. Immanent critique of society 44
Summary 51
Further reading 53
Three
Experience 54
1. Reification and epistemology 55
2. An Hegelian conception of experience 60
3. Mediation 66
4. Subject and object 71
5. Identity and nonidentity 76
Summary 83
Further reading 85

Four
Metaphysics 86
1. Metaphysics and philosophy 87
2. Against metaphysics 89
3. A metaphysics of nonidentity 100
Summary 107
Further reading 109

Five
Freedom and morality 110
1. Freedom and the dialectic of Enlightenment 112
2. Autonomy as ideology 115
3. Autonomy as repression 120
4. Autonomy as resistance 130
5. Morality 135
Summary 145
Further reading 146

Six
Aesthetics 147
1. Mimesis 149
2. Mimesis and the dialectic of Enlightenment 151
3. Mimesis, imitation and aesthetic theory 154
4. Kafka and the mimesis of reification 158