Table of contents

Abbreviations .................................................................................................................. 15

PREFACE ......................................................................................................................... 17

CHAPTER 1 ...................................................................................................................... 19
FLEXIBILITY OF LABOUR RELATIONS IN THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC
IN THE LIGHT OF EUROPEAN LABOUR LAW .......................................................... 19
Introduction .................................................................................................................... 19
§ 1 Determining signs of increasing flexibility in labour relations in Slovak labour law ....................................................................................................................... 20
I. Non-standard employment contracts ................................................................. 21
II. Working time ........................................................................................................... 23
III. Equal treatment principle ..................................................................................... 24
IV. Corporate restructuring ......................................................................................... 25
   A. Transfer of undertaking ....................................................................................... 25
   B. Insolvency of employer ...................................................................................... 26
   C. Collective redundancies ..................................................................................... 27
V. Fundamental human rights – limits for increases in labour relations flexibility for the future ............................................................................................... 27

CHAPTER 2 .................................................................................................................. 30
REFORM OF LABOUR LAW IN THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC ........................................ 30
§ 1 General legal framework of the current legal state ........................................... 30
I. New legal definition of dependent work ............................................................... 32
II. Establishment of employment .............................................................................. 32
III. Agencies for employment .................................................................................... 33
IV. Probationary period ............................................................................................. 33
V. Fixed-term employment relationship ................................................................. 33
VI. Termination of employment relationship ........................................................... 34
VII. Notice period ...................................................................................................... 34
   A. Monetary compensation in case when employee does not continue to work for employer until the end of notice period ........................................... 35
VIII. Offer of another suitable work – substantive condition of notice ................. 35
IX. Collective redundancies ...................................................................................... 36
X. Participation of employee representatives in termination of employment relationship ..................................................................................... 36

Bibliografische Informationen
http://d-nb.info/1048743853
digitalisiert durch
XI. Invalidity of termination of employment .......................................................... 36
XII. New legal regulation of severance allowance upon termination of employment relationship .......................................................... 37
XIII. Regulation of competing earning activities of employee .................................... 37
XIV. Legislative changes of regulation of working time ........................................... 38
XV. New legal regulation of paid holiday .................................................................. 39
XVI. Agreements on work performed outside of employment relationship ............... 39
XVII. New legal regulation of collective labour law .................................................. 40
XVIII. Entitlements of employee representatives to time off from work .................... 41
Conclusion .................................................................................................................. 41

CHAPTER 3 ................................................................................................................. 42
FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF SLOVAK LABOUR LAW ..................................... 42
§ 1 Protection of human dignity .................................................................................. 43
  I. Legal foundations of protection of human dignity .................................................. 44
§ 2 Prohibition of forced or compulsory labour ......................................................... 46
§ 3 Freedom of association ....................................................................................... 46
§ 4 Protection of employee's privacy .......................................................................... 47
§ 5 Freedom of contract in labour law ....................................................................... 49
  I. Freedom of selection of contracting partner ......................................................... 50
  II. Freedom of conclusion of contract ...................................................................... 50
  III. Freedom of determination of content of contract ............................................... 50
  IV. Freedom of dissolution (termination) of contract .............................................. 51
  V. Freedom of choice of contractual form ................................................................ 51
  VI. Contract principle in collective labour law ........................................................ 51
§ 6 Principle of equal treatment .................................................................................. 52
  I. General characteristics ....................................................................................... 52
  II. Legal basis of prohibition of discrimination in Slovak labour law ...................... 52
  III. General prohibition of discrimination in labour-law relationships .................... 53
    A. Concept of direct discrimination ....................................................................... 53
    B. Concept of indirect discrimination .................................................................... 53
  IV. Application of principle of equal treatment in labour-law relationships .......... 54
  V. Grounds of discrimination .................................................................................. 54
    A. Sex and gender ................................................................................................ 55
    B. Religion and belief ......................................................................................... 55
    C. Racial and ethnic origin .................................................................................. 55
    D. Age ................................................................................................................. 55
    E. Sexual orientation ........................................................................................... 56
    F. Health disability .............................................................................................. 56
  VI. Concept of harassment ....................................................................................... 56
  VII. Concept of sexual harassment ........................................................................ 57
  VIII. Exceptions from prohibition of discrimination .............................................. 57
§ 7 Prohibition of abuse of right ................................................................................ 58
  I. Requirement to exercise rights in accordance with good morals ......................... 58
CHAPTER 4 60

TERMS EMPLOYEE AND EMPLOYER 60

§ 1 General legal characteristics of the term employee 60
I. Trader – entrepreneur 62
II. Employee working from home and teleworker 62
III. Professional sportsmen 63
IV. Managers and statutory body members 64

§ 2 Term employer 65
I. Categories of employers 66
A. Employer – legal person 66
B. Employer – natural person 68

§ 3 Employer's legal position 69

CHAPTER 5 71

EMPLOYMENT OF FOREIGNERS IN THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC 71

§ 1 General characteristics – sources of law 71
§ 2 Conflict-of-law rules 72
I. Rome I Regulation 72
A. Choice of law 72
B. Principle of employee's benefit 73
C. Mandatory rules 77
§ 3 Right to free movement of employees 78
I. Prohibition of discrimination of employees in free movement of employees 78
A. Access to employment 78
B. Right to free pursuit of employment and prohibition of discrimination 79
§ 4 Temporary posting of employees 79
I. Guarantee of hard core of working conditions 80

CHAPTER 6 83

ESTABLISHMENT OF EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP 83

§ 1 Employer's information duties 83
§ 2 Information duties of a natural person – future employee 84
§ 3 Establishment of employment relationship by employment contract 85
I. Form of employment contract 86
II. Content of employment contract 86
A. Type of work 87
B. Place of performance of work 88
C. Date of commencement of work 89
D. Wage conditions 89
E. Agreement on probationary period 90
III. Types of employment contracts 90
A. Fixed-term employment relationship 91
B. Part-time employment relationship 93
I. Notice ................................................................. 113
II. Notice period ......................................................... 113
   A. Monetary compensation in case when employee does not continue to work for employer until the end of notice period ...................... 114
III. Participation of employee representatives in termination of employment relationship .................................................. 115
IV. Invalidity of termination of employment ............................................. 115
V. New legal regulation of severance allowance at termination of employment relationship .............................................. 116
VI. Regulation of competing earning activities of employee ................... 116
VII. Offer of other appropriate work .................................................. 117
VIII. Reasons for notice ..................................................... 118
    A. Reason for notice under Section 63(1)(a) point 1 LC .................. 119
    B. Reason for notice under Section 63(1)(a) point 2 LC .................. 120
    C. Employee's redundancy .................................................. 120
    D. Employee's health reasons .............................................. 120
    E. Failure to meet prerequisites for performance of work ................ 121
    F. Reason for notice under Section 42(2) LC .............................. 122
    G. Failure to meet requirements for performance of work by the employee ................................................................. 122
    H. Breach of work discipline ................................................ 123
IX. Subjective and objective time-bar period ..................................... 125
X. Prohibition of notice .................................................................. 125
    A. Employee's temporary incapacity for work ............................... 126
    B. Employee's pregnancy, maternity and parenthood ..................... 127
    C. Performance of public function by the employee ....................... 127
    D. Employee's temporary incapacity for performance of night work .... 127
XI. Exceptions from protection period ............................................. 128
§ 3 Notice given by employee .......................................................... 129
§ 4 Immediate termination of employment relationship ............................ 129
   I. Immediate termination of employment relationship ....................... 130
      A. Conviction of an intentional criminal offence by final judgment ...... 130
      B. Serious breach of work discipline ....................................... 131
      C. Breach of work discipline abroad ....................................... 132
      D. Prohibition of immediate termination of employment relationship .... 132
   II. Immediate termination of employment relationship by the employee .... 132
      A. Serious threat to employee's health .................................... 133
      B. Imminent threat to employee's life or health .......................... 134
      C. Failure to pay wage or wage compensation ............................ 135
      D. Risk to morals .............................................................. 136
      E. Wage compensation as satisfaction for immediate termination of employment relationship .................................................. 136
§ 5 Termination of fixed-term employment relationship ............................ 139
   I. Reclassification of employment relationship into employment relationship for indefinite period .............................. 137
I. Stipulated weekly working time .................................................. 158
II. Maximum daily working time ....................................................... 159
   A. Maximum working time for adolescent employees ....................... 159
   B. Working time of healthcare workers (opt-out) ............................... 159
§ 5 Even distribution of working time ............................................. 160
§ 6 Uneven distribution of working time .......................................... 160
   I. Agreement with representatives of employees in case of distribution period longer than four months .............................................. 160
   II. Agreement with categories of employees enjoying special protection .... 161
   III. Working time account ...................................................... 161
      A. Agreement on introducing a working time account ....................... 161
      B. Employee's right to constant wage in case of application of working time account ............................................................... 162
      C. Return of wage paid upon termination of employment relationship .... 162
§ 7 Flexible working time .......................................................... 163
§ 8 Employee's right to different regulation of working time ............... 163
§ 9 Work on public holidays ..................................................... 164
§ 10 On-call duty ................................................................. 164
   I. Extent of on-call duty ...................................................... 165
   II. Limitation of scope of on-call duty under a collective agreement ..... 165
   III. Prohibition of ordering on-call duty ..................................... 165
   IV. Different remuneration of on-call duty .................................... 165
§ 11 Overtime work ................................................................. 166
   I. Agreement with employee representatives on conditions of overtime work ..................................................................... 166
   II. Risky work ........................................................................ 166
§ 12 Night work ................................................................. 166
   I. Prohibition of ordering night work ........................................... 167
§ 13 Special duties of the employer concerning documentation of working time ........................................................................ 168
   I. Employer's reporting duty ...................................................... 168
   II. Employer's registration duty ................................................... 169

CHAPTER 12 ........................................................................ 170
REST PERIODS ........................................................................ 170
§ 1 Breaks at work for rest and eating .............................................. 170
§ 2 Safety breaks at work ............................................................. 170
§ 3 Breaks at work for breastfeeding ............................................... 171
§ 4 Continuous daily rest ............................................................. 171
   I. Conditions of reducing daily rest after work ................................. 171
§ 5 Continuous rest in a week ........................................................ 171
   I. First model of application of continuous rest in a week .................. 172
   II. Second model of application of continuous rest in a week ............ 172
   III. Third model of application of continuous rest in a week ............. 173
   IV. Fourth model of application of continuous rest in a week ............ 173
§ 1 General characteristics ................................................................. 192
§ 2 Obstacles to work on the employee's part .................................. 192
   I. Obstacles to work in case of performing civic duties and other acts 193 in general interest ........................................................................ 193
   II. Increasing qualification .............................................................. 193
   III. Important personal obstacles to work on the employee's part .... 193
      A. Examination or treatment of employee in a medical facility ..... 194
      B. Accompanying a family member in a medical facility ........... 194
      C. Preventative medical examination during pregnancy ............ 195
      D. Employee's wedding .............................................................. 195
      E. Birth of the employee's child ............................................... 196
      F. Other obstacles to work on the employee's part .................... 196
      G. Impossibility of travelling to work ...................................... 196
      H. Employee's moving ............................................................. 196
   I. Looking for a new job ................................................................. 197
§ 3 Obstacles on the employer's part ................................................. 197
   I. Stoppage ................................................................................. 197
   II. Bad weather conditions .......................................................... 198
   III. Obstacle to work consisting in operational grounds ............... 198 on the employer's part ............................................................. 198
   IV. Other obstacles to work .......................................................... 198

CHAPTER 16 ..................................................................................... 199
WORKING CONDITIONS OF WOMEN AND MEN CARING
FOR CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENT EMPLOYEES ............................. 199
§ 1 Work prohibited to pregnant and breastfeeding women and mothers after childbirth ....................................................... 199
   I. Other prohibitions of work ....................................................... 200
§ 2 Maternity leave and parental leave ............................................ 200
§ 3 Working conditions of adolescent employees ............................. 201
   I. Prohibition of inappropriate types of work ............................... 201
   II. Other types of work prohibited to adolescent employees ........ 201

CHAPTER 17 ..................................................................................... 203
LIABILITY FOR DAMAGE IN LABOUR LAW .................................... 203
§ 1 General characteristics of liability in labour law ....................... 203
§ 2 Employee's liability for damage caused to employer ................. 204
   I. Employee's general liability for damage .................................. 205
   II. Liability for the failure to fulfil the obligation to avert damage .... 205
   III. Liability for the deficit in accountable entrusted assets .......... 205
   IV. Liability for the loss of entrusted objects ............................... 206
   V. Scope of compensation of damage by the employee ............... 206
§ 3 Employer's liability for damage caused to his employees .......... 207
   I. Employer's general liability for damage .................................. 207
   II. Liability for damage to things laid aside ............................... 208
III. Liability in averting damage ..................................................... 208
IV. Liability for damage in case of accident at work and occupational diseases ......................................................... 209
§ 4 Compensation of damage ....................................................... 210

CHAPTER 18 .............................................................................. 211
COLLECTIVE LABOUR LAW ....................................................... 211
§ 1 Trade union pluralism ............................................................. 211
   I. Powers of trade union bodies in employer’s undertaking ........ 211
      A. Right of co-decision ....................................................... 212
      B. Control activities ......................................................... 212
      C. Right to collective bargaining ....................................... 213
      D. Right to consultation .................................................... 213
      E. Right to information ..................................................... 213
§ 2 Works councils ..................................................................... 213
   I. Powers of works councils .................................................... 214

CHAPTER 19 .............................................................................. 215
COLLECTIVE AGREEMENTS ...................................................... 215
§ 1 Types of collective agreements .............................................. 215
§ 2 Formal particulars of collective agreements ......................... 216
§ 3 Validity and effectiveness of collective agreements ............... 216
   I. Validity and effectiveness of collective agreements in relation to the transfer of rights and obligations ..................................... 216
§ 4 Extension of applicability of collective agreements ............... 217

Bibliography ............................................................................ 218