Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Prologue: Modernity as Gollum—Arendt's Warning 1

1. The Derivative Self and the Responsive Turn:
   Love and Saint Augustine 6

2. The Desire to Belong: Rahel Varnhagen 17

3. Totalization and Organized Loneliness:
   The Origins of Totalitarianism 29

4. A Community of Memory at Risk: Between Past and Future 47

5. Modernity's Amnesia, Forgotten Existential Demands:
   The Human Condition 62

6. The Taken-for-Granted: On Revolution 77

7. The Banality of Evil: Eichmann in Jerusalem 90

8. The Temporality of Judgment:
   Lectures on Kant's Political Philosophy 105

9. Lamp Holders and Holy Sparks: Men in Dark Times 117

10. Forgotten Roots: Crises of the Republic 132

11. Recovering Human Meaning, the Silent Side of Speech:
    Essays in Understanding 146

12. Otherwise Than Convention: Responsibility and Judgment 170

13. An Enlarged Mentality: The Promise of Politics 183

14. Clarity of a Situated and Responsive Voice:
    The Jewish Writings 197

15. Navigating Darkness: Responsibility and
    The Life of the Mind 220

16. Countering the Magic of Modernity:
    Meeting Darkness and Rejecting Artificial Light 242

Notes 267

Bibliography 283

Index 293