Contents

1 Introduction: Contestation as a Norm-Generative Social Practice .......................... 1
   1.1 In a Nutshell ................................................. 3
   1.2 Inter-National Relations: Theory, Field of Enquiry and Practice ....................... 6
   1.3 Contestation .................................................. 7
   1.4 Argument and Approach ..................................... 9
   1.5 Organisation of the Book ................................. 11

2 The Normativity Premise: The Normative Power of Contestation .......................... 17
   2.1 What Is Normative About Norms? ............................ 19
   2.2 Where Are Norms Contestable? ............................. 27
   2.3 Contestation as Normative Practice ....................... 29
   2.4 Conclusion .................................................. 32

3 The Diversity Premise: The Legitimacy Gap in International Relations ................. 33
   3.1 Argument: The Legitimacy Gap .............................. 34
   3.2 Three Types of Norms and the Legitimacy Gap in International Relations ........... 35
   3.3 The Diversity Premise ....................................... 39
   3.4 Normative Baggage .......................................... 41
   3.5 From Dialogue to Multilogue ............................... 42
   3.6 Conclusion .................................................. 44

4 Cultural Cosmopolitanism: Contestedness and Contestation .............................. 45
   4.1 Cosmopolitanism and Cultural Practice ........................ 47
   4.2 Modes and Stages of Contestation .......................... 49
   4.3 Conclusion .................................................. 52

5 Thinking Tools and Central Concepts of the Theory of Contestation ..................... 55
   5.1 Organising Principles ....................................... 58
6 Applying the Theory of Contestation: Three Sectors of Global Governance

6.1 Organising Principles of Security, Climate and Fisheries Governance

6.2 Organising Principles in Three Governance Sectors

6.2.1 Security Governance

6.2.2 Climate Governance

6.2.3 Fisheries Governance

6.3 Conclusion: Contestation at the Referring Stage

7 Conclusion: Why a New Theory of Contestation?

7.1 Thinking Tools and Research Assumptions

7.2 Organising Principles and Regular Contestation

7.3 Conclusion

References