Contents

Dogs >4

- About This Book >4
- The Dog in Our Society >4
- Why a Pedigree Dog? >5
- Choosing a Dog >6
- Long-Haired or Short-Haired Breed? >6
- Male or Female? >7
- The Right Breeder >7
- The Right Breed >8
- Family-Friendly Dogs >9

Dog Breeds >10

Grouped according to the tasks the dogs were originally bred for

Sheepdogs

Bred to guard and round up the herd working as a team with the shepherd

Cattle Dogs and Farm Dogs

Bred to herd livestock to the market or guard the yard

Herding Dogs

Bred to guard and protect herds independently

Gundogs With Handlers

Bred to forage, track, and retrieve working together with the hunter
Gundogs
Without Handlers
Bred to search and track game independently

Boar, Bear, and Bull Baiters
Bred for hunting large game

Independent Hunters
Lone hunters

Companion Dogs
Bred for companionship

Archetypal Dogs
Breeds that have not been altered throughout their breeding history

Further Reading > 157
(Book and Internet Addresses)
A–Z List of Dog Breeds > 158
Copyright > 160