CONTENTS

Introduction. Crime and Criminal Justice in Modern Germany
Richard F. Wetzell

PART I. CRIMINAL JUSTICE IN IMPERIAL GERMANY

1. Justice is Blind: Crowds, Irrationality, and Criminal Law in the Late Kaiserreich
Benjamin Carter Hett

2. Punishment on the Path to Socialism: Socialist Perspectives on Crime and Criminal Justice before World War I
Andreas Fleiter

3. Reforming Women's Prisons in Imperial Germany
Sandra Leukel

PART II. PENAL REFORM IN THE WEIMAR REPUBLIC

4. Between Reform and Repression: Imprisonment in Weimar Germany
Nikolaus Wachsmann

5. The Medicalization of Wilhelmine and Weimar Juvenile Justice Reconsidered
Gabriel N. Finder

6. Welfare and Justice: The Battle over Gerichtshilfe in the Weimar Republic
Warren Rosenblum

PART III. CONSTRUCTIONS OF CRIME IN THE WEIMAR COURTS, MEDIA, AND LITERATURE

7. Prostitutes, Respectable Women, and Women from “Outside”:
The Carl Grossmann Sexual Murder Case in Postwar Berlin
Sace Elder

---

http://d-nb.info/1050371925
8. Class, Youth, and Sexuality in the Construction of the Lustmörder: The 1928 Murder Trial of Karl Hussmann

   Eva Bischoff and Daniel Siemens

   207

9. Crime and Literature in the Weimar Republic and Beyond: Telling the Tale of the Poisoners Ella Klein and Margarete Nebbe

   Todd Herzog

   226

PART IV. CRIMINAL JUSTICE IN NAZI AND POSTWAR GERMANY

10. Serious Juvenile Crime in Nazi Germany

    Robert G. Waite

    247

11. Criminal Law after National Socialism: The Renaissance of Natural Law and the Beginnings of Penal Reform in West Germany

    Petra Gödecke

    270

    Jennifer V. Evans

    302

Notes on Contributors

327

Bibliography

331

Index

355