CONTENTS

Introduction ........................................................................................................................................... 7

THEOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

State and Religion in Islam—Islam's Contribution to the Political Culture of Democracy .................................................................................................. 11
  Mouhanad Khorchide

Dialogical Conversation to Search for Principles of Interfaith Relations: The Future of Pluralistic World Order .............................................................................................................................. 27
  Abdulaziz Sachedina

The Secular State as a Religious Necessity. An Islamic Perspective ......................................................... 41
  Adnane Mokrani

Consumer or Citizen: Religious Communities in the Public Space ............................................................ 51
  Antje Jacketen

Owning Citizenship—The Church in the Public Space .............................................................................. 63
  Martin Junge

Public Space, Agency and Dialogue in Plural Societies ............................................................................ 71
  Simone Sinn

SCRIPTURAL INSIGHTS

No Abiding City? Biblical Perspectives and the Public Square .................................................................. 85
  Clare Amos

Historical Contextualization of the Qur'an as a Key for Today's Interpretations of the Qur'an ....................................................................................................................................................... 95
  Dina El Omari

HISTORICAL INSIGHTS

Spaces for Conversation: Occasions and Conditions for Christian-Muslim Dialogue in Pre-Modern Times ......................................................................................................................................... 105
  Mark Swanson
RELIGIOUS PLURALITY AND THE PUBLIC SPACE

CONTEXTUAL INSIGHTS

Creating Public Space: Observations from the Palestinian Context
Mitri Raheb

Citizenship and Public Theology: A Lutheran Approach from Brazil
Felipe Gustavo Koch Buttelli

Religion in the Public Space: A Nigerian Perspective
Lesmore Gibson Ezekiel

SECULARITY REVISITED

Should Public Space Be Secular?
Marian Burchardt

Interreligious Relations, Secularity and the "Immanent Frame"
Oddbjørn Leirvik

List of Contributors

6