TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction to the manual .......................................................... 7
   1.1 What is participatory research? .................................................. 8
   1.2 Our research project: Social security needs of domestic workers ............. 8
   1.3 Perspective and ownership matter Participatory research ........................................ 11
   1.4 Collaboration between researchers and ‘participants’ .......................... 12
   1.5 What you find in this manual .................................................... 13

2. The research project: step by step ................................................. 14
   2.1 Planning the project ................................................................ 14
   2.2 Setting up a timeline .............................................................. 17
   2.3 What is your research question? .............................................. 18
   2.4 Building the team: researchers, unions/organizations, co-researchers .......... 19
   2.5 Recruiting co-researchers for the project .................................... 22
   2.6 How to structure training sessions .......................................... 24
   2.7 Workshop on the content of the project ..................................... 25
   2.8 Designing a questionnaire ....................................................... 28
   2.9 Research ethics: clearance and asking for consent ......................... 32
   2.10 Interview trainings ............................................................... 34
   2.11 Selection and sampling of interviewees – and finding them ............... 40
   2.12 Recording and transcriptions ................................................. 42
   2.13 Data analysis ................................................................ 44
   2.14 How to use your data ............................................................ 46
   2.15 Celebrate! ....................................................................... 48

3. Reflection and Conclusion ............................................................ 50

4. Literature and further resources ................................................... 52

5. Glossary with methodological terms ............................................. 53