CONTENTS

ABSTRACT

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

CONTENTS

1 INTRODUCTION ................................................................. 11

1.1 The politics of asylum .................................................... 11

1.2 The politics of rights and the paradoxes of rights language ....... 13

1.3 Asylum-seekers, refugees, political exiles, displaced persons ..... 17

1.4 Beginning anew? ............................................................ 22

1.5 The research material and the reading .............................. 26

1.6 Outline of the study ....................................................... 29

2 THE POST-WAR POLITICAL SETTING AND THE LANGUAGE OF RIGHTS ............................................................ 31

2.1 From ‘Frankfurter Dokumente’ to Herrenchiemensee ......... 33

2.2 ‘Provisorium’, ‘Grundgesetz’ ........................................... 35

2.3 Parlamentarischer Rat .................................................... 38

2.3.1 Parliamentary Council as a constitutional and quasi- parliamentary assembly ........................................... 38

2.3.2 Political parties in the Parliamentary Council ............... 42

2.3.3 The authors of the Grundgesetz ................................. 44

2.4 On the language of rights in the post-war period ............... 45

2.4.1 The notion of ‘subjective rights’ ................................. 48

2.4.2 "Die Grundrechte müssen das Grundgesetz regieren" ......... 49

2.4.3 ‘Menschenwürde’ .................................................... 52

3 CREATING A RIGHT TO ASYLUM IN THE PARLIAMENTARY COUNCIL ............................................................ 55

3.1 An introducing to the authors and the drafting fora ............. 56

3.2 Asylum, extradition and 'political offences' ....................... 61

3.2.1 The political offence exception .................................. 63

3.2.2 'Auslieferung' and 'Asyl' in Germany ......................... 67

3.3 Bringing asylum to the political agenda ........................... 71

3.4 Extradition, asylum and the East-West divide .................... 80

3.5 Debating conditions of access - definitions of 'politically persecuted' .................................................. 84

3.6 Unconditionality or Staatsräson? ..................................... 87

3.7 "Ich habe etwas Erfahrung mit solchen Rechten" .................. 94

3.8 The politics of asylum in the Parliamentary Council ............ 100
AN EXCURSION: DECLARING ASYLUM AS A RIGHT OF THE STATE

4.1 The Commission on Human Rights

4.2 Politics of drafting and negotiating

4.3 Right to be granted asylum becomes introduced

4.4 ...And gets removed... before being accepted, again!

4.5 The Third Committee has its say

4.6 Sympathy but no obligations

WHEN EXCEPTIONALITY GETS INTO TROUBLE - AMENDING THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO ASYLUM IN THE BUNDESTAG (1993)

5.1 From something almost unforgotten to something highly troublesome

5.2 Creating conditions for access

5.3 The “overused” and “abused” right

5.4 References to the Parliamentary Council

5.5 The European integration framework

5.6 Altering an individual right

CONCLUDING REMARKS

TIIVISTELMÄ

REFERENCES