

Contents

Arndt Brendecke and Susanne Friedrich
Introduction .....	1
Lissa Roberts
Re-Orienting the Transformation of Knowledge in Dutch Expansion: Nagasaki as a Centre of Accumulation and Management .....	19
Mina Ishizu and Simona Valeriani
Botanical Knowledge in Early Modern Japan and Europe: Transformations and Parallel Developments .....	43
Stefan Ehrenpreis
Empiricism and Image-Building: The Creation and Dissemination of Knowledge on Dutch Brazil 1636–1750 ....	69
Michiel van Groesen
Arnoldus Montanus, Dutch Brazil, and the Re-Emergence of Cannibalism .....	93
Benjamin Schmidt
Knowledge Products and their Transmediations: Dutch Geography and the Transformation of the World .....	121
Anke Fischer-Kattner
Transformations and Transformativity of Knowledge: François Le Vaillant’s Travelogues from the Dutch Cape Colony	159
Anjana Singh
Botanical Knowledge in Early Modern Malabar and the Netherlands: A Review of Van Reede’s Hortus Malabaricus .	187
Bettina Noak
Under the Spell of Curiositas : Wouter Schouten (1638–1704) as Ethnologist and Natural Scientist .....	209
Peter Rietbergen
Before the Bible, beyond the Bible...? VOC Travelogues, World Views and the Paradigms of Christian Europe .....	231
Index .....	251