NICOSIA

Cyprus’s divided capital fuses lifestyle and tradition, culture and Mediterranean flair.

PAPHOS

Delicious seafood and relicts of ancient cultures characterise this stretch of coastline where Aphrodite rose from the waves.
TROODOS

A warm welcome! Cyprus's highest mountain range is all about nature and good food: goat's cheese, wine, almonds and fruit.

CYPRUS - LAND OF WINE

Yiamas! Dedicated winemakers are producing astonishing wines from the island's ancient grape varieties.

LIMASSOL

A spirit of optimism and unconventionality reigns in Cyprus's second-biggest city, where the future is waiting around every corner.

LARNACA

The region between Ayia Napa, Cape Greco and Famagusta lures with an enticing mix of golden beaches, turquoise sea and fertile red earth.
