Contents

Preface

- Introduction 11
  - A. Biography 11
  - B. Philosophy 12
  - C. Scope of the Study 19

Dasein and the Question of the Meaning of Being

- A. Presuppositions about the Question of the Meaning of Being 22
- B. The Formal Structure of the Question of Being 24
- C. The Ontological Priority of Question of Being 28
- D. The Ontical Priority of the Question of Being 29
- E. Dasein's Three-fold Priority to the Question of Being 30
- F. The Ontological Analytic of Dasein 33
- G. The Analytic of Dasein and Temporality 40
- H. The Task of Destruction of the History of Ontology 42
- I. The Phenomenological Method of Investigation 47

Dasein and Being-in-the-World

- A. In-the-World 58
  - (i) The Idea of the Worldhood of the World 58
  - (ii) Environmentality and Worldhood in General 60
    - (a) The Being of the Entities Encountered in the Environment 61
    - (b) Announcing of the Worldly Character of the Environment in Entities within-the-world 64
    - (c) Reference and Assignment 65
(d) Involvement, Significance & the Worldhood of the World 66

(iii) Phenomenological Analysis of Worldhood and Descartes’ Interpretation of the World 70

(iv) Spatiality and Being-in-the-World 72

B. The Entity which has Being-in-the-World as its way of Being 74

(i) The Existential Question of the “who” of Dasein 75

(ii) Dasein-with Others and Everyday Being-with 76

(iii) Dasein’s Everyday Being-one’s Self and the “They” 80

C. Being-in as Such 81

(i) Knowing the World 84

(ii) Existential Constitution of Being “there” 86

(a) Being-there as State-of-mind and as Thrownness 86

(b) Fear as State-of-Mind 88

(c) Being-there as Understanding 90

(d) Interpretation and Assertion 92

(e) Discourse and Language 95

(iii) Dasein’s Everyday Being-There 97

(a) Idle Talk 99

(b) Curiosity 99

(c) Ambiguity 100

(d) Falling 101

Dasein, Care and Death 103

A. Anxiety as a Distinctive way in Which Dasein is Disclosed 105

B. Dasein’s Being as Care: An Existential-Ontological Interpretation 107

C. Care and Reality 111

D. Dasein, Disclosedness, and Truth 112

E. The Primordial Phenomenon of Truth 114